G.O.P. CHIEF RAISES 'DEAL'S' SPENDING AS MAIN '36 ISSUE

Representative Bolton, Chairman of Congressional Body, Says Taxes Transcend Trust-Busting, Other Questions.

SIDES WITH 'T. R.' AGAINST BORAH

Answering 'Turn the Spendthrifts Out' Fletch, Says Business Profits by Expenditures.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—New Deal expenditures were viewed tonight by Representative Bolton, of Idaho, chairman of the republican congressional committee, as "the major issue" for the 1936 campaign.

He said in an interview that "because everyone realizes there will be a whole of a tax bill later on" the spending issue transcended in popular appeal constitutional, trust-busting and other challenges raised by opposition spokesmen.

Packing for a trip home, Bolton said: "I think every republican candidate for federal office might very well promise to help balance the budget by keeping expenses within existing revenues. That is what this country needs particularly."

Agrees With 'T. R.'
He expressed concurrence with the thought of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, who disagreed with the contention of Senator Borah, of Idaho, that "the question of monopoly lies at the base" of all arguments the republicans might use in the attempt to secure governmental control next year.

Colonel Roosevelt, likewise, had declared the administration spending program is susceptible to effective republican attack.

Bolton, who said he is traveling almost constantly in the area north of the Mason-Dixon line and east of the Mississippi, said the "new deal" is "a new kind of socialism" and "a new kind of socialism" would become more important if the democrats should propose an amendment to the voters.

He asserted a reduction of government operations would cut down the needs for taxation and private industry thereby would become better fitted to absorb workers now unemployed.

Outs Spendthrifts
From Chairman Fletcher, democrat, Florida, of the senate banking committee, came the assertion of "government activities and expenditures have increased about $100,000,000 of bank credit lost in the $210,000,000 deficit of 1933-34." He added: "The money the government is putting out is going to people who are putting it in the banks. It is increasing purchasing power and likewise expanding the credit facilities of the banks."

"Business is going to get the benefit of that."

The Florida senator forecast a reduction in emergency expenditures should business conditions continue to improve.

Bolton said the general slogan of the speech and statement campaign being waged by the republican congressional committee would be "turn the spendthrifts out."

Fair, Warm Weather Forecast for Today

Fair weather, slightly warmer than yesterday's top figure of 73, in store for Atlanta today, according to the U. S. weather bureau.

No relief is in sight, the bureau adds, for the dreary that has gripped this section since September 11.

U. S. Navy To Build Fleet of Huge Planes

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—(AP)—A vast new fleet of flying patrol boats for the United States navy was announced here tonight by Rear Admiral Ernest J. King, chief of the navy bureau of aeronautics.

Admiral King said 60 duplicates of the record-breaking "XPBY-1" are to be built immediately at San Diego by the Consolidated Aircraft Corporation as the nucleus of a great armada of flying cruisers for the fleet patrol wing, able to cross the Pacific non-stop and staunch enough that they can base on the open sea, free of all aid, save by floating tenders.

The statement was made by Admiral King after a conference aboard the flagship Pennsylvania with Admiral Joseph H. Reeves, commander-in-chief.

The navy's new flying patrol boat XPBY-1 made a 3,387-mile non-stop flight from Panama to Alameda, Cal., recently.

COMMODITY LEVEL AT FIVE-YEAR HIGH

Daily Index Hits 75.95
Well Above Year's Low of 69.14 Reached June 25.

By RADER WINGET.
NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Commodity prices, influenced strongly by expanding demand, are now in the aggregate around the best levels since late in 1930.

Although restricted supply in many cases has forced higher prices, trade authorities believe a revival of demand is becoming an increasingly important factor in the current rise. In a few lines, such as copper and steel scrap, war preparations have been a factor.

The Associated Press daily index of 20 basic raw commodities stood today at 75.95, well above the year's low of 69.14, touched June 25, and nearly at the peak of 76.54, attained October 1.

Grains have led the upward movement. Since June 1, the average price of grain has risen from 76 percent of the 1929 average to current levels of 92 percent.

"The rise in grain prices," it is reported by Standard Statistics Company, "is traceable largely to prospective improvement in the world wheat situation."

"The production of wheat in all producing countries this year represents the smallest harvest in 13 years, the result of drought in most countries and black rust damage in North America."

The influence of restricted supplies in that section also has exerted heavy pressure. Hogs, for example, were quoted at $5.05 a hundredweight in Chicago June 25. Today the price is at $10.75. Cattle on today were quoted at $10 and today they sell for $13 a hundredweight.

Coincident with the rise in meat prices, hides currently are at the best levels of the year which represent the "safety on the highways" movement.

Red Cross To Drive On Highway Deaths

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—(AP)—A national campaign against "public enemy No. 4" was announced today by Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, national chairman of the Red Cross.

"Public enemy No. 4" is America's vehicular death toll, which accounts for more fatalities than any other factor in modern life, excepting heart disease, cancer, tuberculosis, hemorrhage, Rear Admiral Grayson said.

A week's educational program beginning October 28 will inaugurate the "safety on the highways" movement.

Highways will be "safely organized," by location of first-aid stations in filling stations, tourist camps, stores and police and fire stations.

CHEST DRIVE GOAL SET AT $412,500 AFTER LONG STUDY

Organization Speeded for Campaign To Start November 18; Need Greater Than Ever Before.

With the goal set at $412,500, organization of the volunteer army of Community Chest workers for the campaign that begins November 18 was sped yesterday by Julian V. Boehm, general campaign chairman.

"Announcement of the goal has focused attention on the human needs in Atlanta," Mr. Boehm said. "We knew the need existed—now we know the measure of that need and what we must do to meet it."

Five of the seven divisions of the Chest army are almost complete as men and women in all walks of life assume posts of leadership. Much preliminary work is under way.

The goal was set yesterday by the administrative committee of the Chest after days of study of conditions in Atlanta and the demands upon the agencies of the Chest for service.

The committee consists of Robert F. Maddox, president of the Chest; T. Guy Woolford, James L. Wells, J. P. Allen and Dr. Herman L. Turner.

Goal "Absolute Minimum"
"The goal set represents the absolute minimum required to meet human needs in Atlanta during 1935," Mr. Maddox said.

"We must face the fact that the job of caring for these thousands of men and women and children in need of our aid is one we must do for ourselves. It cannot be emphasized too strongly that we can hope for no aid from the federal government. The government has never undertaken the kind of work we are doing."

AAA AMENDMENTS BECLOUD RULING

Law Presents Intricate Constitutional Problem for High Court to Decide.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Constitutional problems confronting the supreme court in the AAA law projected a wide range of possible decisions today in this initial test of farm processing taxes.

Whether the court's verdict in the Hoosac Mills case will seal definitely the fate of the new Deal farm program appeared to depend upon the breadth of the opinion as well as its tenor.

Lawyers who have studied the intricate issues explained the case is complicated by the AAA amendments rushed into law August 24 in an administrative effort to strengthen original legislation.

The Hoosac Mills suit was started through the lower courts long before that date, and thus is based on the old law.

Major Issues.
Two main issues are before the tribunal:

1. Were the taxes invalid on the ground that congress delegated unwarranted legislative power to Secretary Wallace in authorizing him to fix the rates?

2. Were the levies an improper exercise of the taxing power of congress and intended to regulate crop production in violation of the commerce clause?

An affirmative answer to the first question, lawyers say, would raise the question of whether congress had been able to raise the old taxes by the August amendments.

If it had not been able to do so, the law would be unconstitutional.

Boy and Rabbit Most Tragic Story

By IRVIN S. COBB.
(Copyright, 1935, by North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.)
SANTA MONICA, Cal., Oct. 17.—To me, the biggest, most tragic story in the day's papers was not a war in Africa, or a Mexican border rather than the suffering of a gallant American soldier. It was a little press dispatch from an Ohio town where a 12-year-old boy lived.

Clubwomen of Georgia Enroll In Constitution's Safety Drive

State Federation Praise Campaign and Promise 100 Per Cent Co-operation; Many Groups and Individuals Sign Safe Driving Pledge of Council.

Clubwomen of Georgia enrolled yesterday in the Safe Driving campaign conducted by the Safe Council of the Constitution when the executive committee of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs voted unanimously its high approval of the campaign and tendered its services in any way in which it can aid to the Constitution's Safety Council.

Announcement of this action was made by Mrs. H. B. Ritchie, president of the federation. As a first step to help make the Safe Driving army 100 per cent among Georgia motorists, every member of the federation will sign the Safe Driving pledge and affix the little red stickers that testify to this fact to the windshield and rear window of her car.

Other important developments in the campaign, which is designed to reduce the number of highway fatalities and to eliminate, as far as possible, the injury and sorrow caused by traffic accidents, included enlistment, one hundred perfect, of all employees of the Ruralist Press, one of the largest printing establishments in Atlanta, and of Stoddard, Inc., the prominent dry cleaning and dyeing establishment.

WPA JOBS LIMITED TO FUNDS ON HAND

Early Start Seen for About One-Third of Approved List for Georgia.

WPA funds on hand in Atlanta will make it possible to begin immediately one out of three of the $2,844,705 public works projects approved yesterday in United States Treasury Warrant No. 523, signed in Washington.

Fulton county projects totalling $900,000 are included in the list, and if the allocation of funds in this county is fixed in the same proportion as it must be in other sections of the state, only one-third of the work listed in the Washington announcement may be started.

Late yesterday R. L. McDougall, assistant Georgia WPA administrator, said his department was engaged in determining the amount of work that can be started. From a reliable source, it was learned this amount will be no more than $500,000 or $600,000.

Does Not Release Funds.
Federal officials in Atlanta yesterday emphasized that the mere signing of a warrant for the $2,844,705 projects for Georgia does not mean this amount of money is being transferred from the treasury department in Washington to the state.

Merely means, they said, that this amount of projects had received official approval and the local WPA office can go ahead on the money.

Officials added that the rest of the money needed may come at a later date, possibly before the $500,000 or $600,000 on hand has been used up.

Mr. McDougall's office will begin selection of the projects as soon as they receive official word from the treasury department as to the projects to be started.

Fit Projects to Needs.
"We will take whatever money is available in the state and work such of those projects as the money will cover," McDougall said. "It is our purpose to fit the projects to the needs of labor on the WPA rolls in the various communities and, of course, we want the money distributed as widely over the state as is possible. We will probably have three

Deserter, Made Chief by Italians, Yarns for 'High Life' in Rome

ROME, Oct. 16.—(AP)—Ethiopia's said, amid an unceasing ceremonial and the beating of drums.

Gugsa wore a ceremonial mantle and the beating of drums. He was the son of a gallant Tigre province and a bedlam of rejoicing by natives of that occupied land, Rome newspapers reported tonight.

The official communique said the little black man, who wears a gaudy uniform, eats spaghetti with fascist officers and yearns to taste the high life of Rome.

There was general feasting, and restoration and repairs for your churches. Italy will protect your customs and your religion."

The ceremony took place in the plaza facing the Adigrat fortress. Gugsa's soldiers on one side and black-shirt regulars on the other formed a guard of honor.

ROME ALLY GIVEN REINS IN AUSTRIA, PURGES CABINET

Von Starhemberg Tightens Grip on Militia as Private Armies Merged; Aid to Italy Seen.

VIENNA, Oct. 17.—(UP)—Prince Ernst Rudiger von Starhemberg, friend and imitator of Italy's Premier Benito Mussolini, took a firmer grip on Austria's government and semi-military organizations today.

At the behest of Starhemberg, Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg shook radical heimwehr (home guard) elements out of the cabinet while the militaristic young nobleman reformed the nation's many uniformed bodies into a single voluntary militia under his command.

As heavily armed police guarded public buildings, Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg and his cabinet resigned; President Miklas ordered Schuschnigg to form a new government and, within a few minutes, changes of far-reaching character were effected.

Schuschnigg remains as chancellor and the militant Prince Ernst von Starhemberg, leader of the heimwehr and fatherland front, retains the post of vice chancellor.

But Major Eugen Fey, staunch aide of the slain Chancellor Engelbert Dollfus, was ushered out of the cabinet with the minister of agriculture, Josef Reither, a Catholic monarchist leader revered by thousands of peasants.

The powerful Starhemberg was given vastly increased authority. He was made head of a new Austrian militia, to be formed of the private armies which heretofore have been a powerful factor in Austrian military organization.

This militia will include Starhemberg's old heimwehr of nearly 100,000 men; approximately 60,000 Catholic storm troops and 15,000 men of the freischutz corps.

One officer said the reason for the changes was to strengthen the government.

DRUID HILLS SCENE OF HOME HOLD-UP

Bold Criminal Is Sought
After Burglary Series in Exclusive Section.

A daring holdup last night staged in the home of the victims in exclusive Druid Hills and another attempted holdup in the same section climaxed a week's crime wave in the section which has been the scene of six other burglaries, and caused DeKalb county police to put two radio police cars in the section and establish 24-hour police duty.

The most daring of the holdups was staged at 9:15 o'clock last night at the home of R. N. Fickett Jr., at 1783 Ponce de Leon avenue, N. E.

Mrs. Fickett and her son, Tom Fickett, were in a downstairs room when they heard the front door open, they told police. They looked up to see a young man, neatly dressed in blue sweater and shirt, blue trousers and a cap. The intruder had a nickel-plated pistol in his hand and was wearing a mask over the lower portion of his face.

"Be quiet and don't move," he warned.

Says "Good Night."
From Tom Fickett the bandit took $50 in currency, then leisurely surveyed the room. Apparently finding nothing else he wanted, he turned and walked up the stairs to the second floor where Mr. Fickett was in bed reading. The bandit robbed Mr. Fickett of a sum of money, turned about and walked leisurely downstairs, pausing to tell his hosts, "good night," and vanished into the night.

Earlier in the night, Mrs. C. A. Hollinshead, 415 Nelson Ferry road, was in a bedroom of her home when she heard the front door open. She walked into the hall and saw a young man, answering the same description

Day's Developments In Ethiopian Crisis

By The Associated Press.
PARIS—France is expected, with reservations, to reply affirmatively to Britain's showdown demand as to whether her navy would help if the British Mediterranean fleet is attacked by Italy.

LONDON—The long Anglo-French European alliance hangs in balance as London awaits France's reply.

ADDIS ABABA—Haile Selassie says he'll never discuss peace while thousands of fierce warriors pledge loyalty before departing for the front.

ROME—Haile Selassie, Gugsa, who deserted to Italy, is made chief of Tigre province, by Italians; major battle near Makale expected soon.

ROME—Official Italian reports said Ethiopians are massing around Makale, 60 miles southeast of Addis Ababa and "a big battle" is expected.

GENEVA—A League committee plans a "New Deal" program to meet the situation created through application of sanctions against Italy.

SANCTIONS BANK URGED IN GENEVA

'Mutual Aid' Committee
Details 4-Point Program
In Support of Boycott.

GENEVA, Oct. 17.—(AP)—A League of Nations "mutual aid" committee tonight plotted the outlines of a new deal in international trade to meet a situation arising from enforcement of sanctions against Italy.

The proposals include:

1. An international sanctions bank.

2. A central co-operative marketing organization under League control for the sale of "sanctions surpluses."

3. That is goods should be sold because of sanctions against the fascist nation.

4. Preferential redistribution of trade quotas to favor nations participating in sanctions, especially those losing Italian markets because of sanctions.

Unite Against Loss.
None of these proposals actually had been adopted. But the principle of mutual assistance is written in the League covenant, and the committee's deliberations were based on this principle. However, the specific proposals now being drafted need definite approval.

Discussion in the committee stressed the fact Italy will be in a position to grant preferential treatment to League members which do not participate in common action against her.

As a result, it was suggested those nations taking sanctions against Italy should in trade treaties they organize preferential treatment among themselves.

Parliaments Feared.
At the same time, the possibility of parliamentary revolts against sanctions cooled discussion in the committee. It is expected to act similarly in the future of a "buy nothing from Italy" boycott.

No decision was reached on this scheme.

Finland, Colombia and Latvia meanwhile notified the League they are putting into effect the necessary measures for arms embargo against Italy, lifting that on Ethiopia.

Belgium is expected to act similarly soon and officials said Great Britain, Greece, Poland and Cuba previously had notified the league of their acceptance of this sanction.

The legal and constitutional subcommittee, meeting tonight, decided the existence of the most-favored-nation clause in trade treaties should not be recognized as an obstacle to the application of economic sanctions.

Pressure on Importers.
During the night, the committee's discussion, it was suggested preferential treatment of states participating in economic sanctions might be furthered through "propaganda" among national importers, urging them to purchase goods from non-sanctioned countries.

SELASSIE ADVISES BAREFOOT LEGIONS TO HIDE AND SNIPE

Haile Tells White-Clothed, Shield-Bearing Subjects to 'Keep Shammas Dirty' and Throw Away Their Glittering Targets

DUCE SAID FORCING CAPTIVES TO WORK

Natives Boast 'Will Feed Enemy to Vultures' as They Hunt for 'Italian Breast for Every Spear.'

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE.
ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 17.—(UP)—A savage horde of 100,000 warriors, at whose head marched the veteran Ras Mulu Getta, minister of war, stormed out of Addis Ababa today for the northern front to meet the Italian invaders in a struggle to the death.

The army's orders from Emperor Haile Selassie were, in effect, "protect yourselves if you can, but stem the invaders at all costs."

The muffled sound of marching bare feet stirred the ancient capital to a military frenzy and inspired reports that a great Ethiopian offensive is imminent in which "every Ethiopian man will have ample opportunity to bury his spear in an Italian breast."

However, officials close to the emperor said, "if there is an offensive, it will be entirely contrary to our plan of campaign."

'Keep Shammas Dirty.'
The 1935 proclamation to Ministers of War Mulu, brought a new slogan, "Keep your shammas dirty" to replace the classic "Keep your powder dry." It said:

"The enemy is not new. It is not the emperor who wants war, but the Italians who are pushing the fight. We all will die one day either of typhus or pneumonia, but it is much better to die for your country."

"The Italians will try to repulse you with machine guns. They have machine guns. But we have God on our side."

"We urge you not to fight in the traditional old way of massing against the enemy. On the contrary, follow your leaders' instructions and guard against hot-headedness, because if the enemy discovers you in angry groups, he will burn you as wood in a blaze. Pitch your tents near your chiefs, sheltered with trees and bushes and at least eight meters apart."

Hide From Planes.
"If you see an airplane, leave the open spaces and hide in the jungle. All soldiers with good guns should then shoot at the plane. When fighting begins, you will be within range of the Italian guns. Divest yourself of shield and spears, because they will form a brilliant target."

"Don't wash your shammas. Al-

Two Persons Killed When Plane Crashes

SANDS POINT, L. I., Oct. 17.—(UP)—Two men tentatively identified as Harry Friedman and James MacDonald, both of New York, were killed late today when their amphibious plane crashed in the sound near here.

Both men were drowned before rescue surface craft could reach the plane, which struck the water with terrific impact. Spectators said the plane appeared to be coming in to land when it went into a spin about 500 feet above the water.

AIRPORT TO HONOR AIR PROGRESS DAY

Elaborate Program of Sky Parades and Ground Ceremonies To Be Given.

All facilities of the Atlanta municipal airport will be opened to the public this morning by officials who have arranged a special program for the celebration of Air Progress Day.

A squadron of army bombers from Maxwell field, Montgomery, will attack in mimic warfare at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Over WGST at 4 o'clock there will be a two-way short-wave radio broadcast from a plane as it flies over the city. Jimmie Davenport, of station WGST, will describe the city, picking up from time to time communications between the radio ground crew and the pilot.

An air parade will be staged at 3 o'clock. During the day guides will be stationed at strategic points to show sightseers through the radio rooms, weather bureau, departments of the Delta and Eastern airlines, maintenance shops and the hangars. Officials expect the largest crowd of sightseers between 6 and 7:30 o'clock tonight, when there will be four arrivals and three departures of planes. Air Progress Day celebration is being held in conjunction with the nationwide observance of Air Navigation

Week. An address on aviation will be made by General Van Horn Moseley, commander of the fourth corps area, over station WSB at 10:15 o'clock tonight.

TALMADGE REPLIES TO BRANCH ATTACK

Governor Says Postal Official Should 'Take Care of Dead Letter Office.'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Governor Talmadge, taking cognizance of an attack on him for his criticism of President Roosevelt's Second Assistant Postmaster-General Harlee Branch, yesterday said Branch "instead of taking care of the dead letter office was down here making a speech."

Branch, formerly of the staff of the Atlanta Journal, speaking Wednesday before the convention of district postmasters, charged Talmadge was campaigning against Roosevelt's re-nomination in other states on the "invitation" of the enemies of democratic government.

"They knew what they were doing when they appointed a highup from the Atlanta Journal on that job," Talmadge continued.

"And his touch with the press sure got him in it."

"And at the same time Clark Howell

Sr., a highup on The Atlanta Constitution, is over on the Pacific making speeches for the government but the taxpayers are paying the bill."

He also said that president of The Constitution, now is on a trip to the Philippines with a group of citizens at the invitation of the new island government.

DAVISON'S GLEE CLUB TO SING FOR SMOKER

The Davison-Paxon Glee Club, in an imitation of one of the Major Bowes' radio broadcasts, will be the main attraction at the 422d infantry light tanks social smoker this evening at Wicres Inn.

The Davison-Paxon Glee Club has created favorable comment on the manner in which they mimic one of the most famous programs on the air and with this as the main feature on the program, officials of the regiment are expecting a large attendance.

Colonel Chester E. Martin is commander of the regiment, the only one of its kind in the United States, and Lieutenant W. F. Catron is in charge of the program for the smoker.

DARIEN, Conn., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Alfred C. Church died today shortly after his wife discovered him with his head against a buzz saw in his cellar.

Dr. Ralph W. Crane, Stamford medical examiner, expressed the belief Church committed suicide, but withheld his final verdict.

Church, who was about 30 years old, had been under treatment of a physician.

TESTIMONY IS ENDED ON SANITY OF ZENGE

Mutilation-Death Suspect Declared Sane at Time by Mental Expert.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—(AP)—In a battle of mental experts, the testimony in the trial of Manderville W. Zenge for the mutilation slaying of Dr. Walter J. Bauer was completed today.

Trading hypothetical question for hypothetical question, and diagnosis for diagnosis, the state and defense left to the jury the decision whether the Missouri farm youth was sane as the prosecution contended, or went suddenly mad at the loss of his sweetheart to the emaciation victim, as the defense held.

Only the lawyers' arguments, scheduled to start tomorrow morning, and the instructions from Presiding Judge Cornelius J. Harrington, remained before the jurors could start their analysis of the opposing claims. The jury was expected to receive the case by noon tomorrow.

In rebuttal for the prosecution, Dr. Harry R. Hoffman, head of the Cook county behavior clinic, assailed the defense picture of Zenge as a "manic-depressive, who lost control of his mental faculties when he learned that his sweetheart of 10 years, Louise Shaffer, had suddenly spurned him and married Dr. Bauer.

"I examined Zenge the day of his arrest and I found nothing unusual about him," said Dr. Hoffman.

To a hypothetical query, requiring 45 minutes to read, including all the state's testimony against Zenge, Dr. Hoffman replied:

"That hypothetical person, on July 31 (date of Bauer's death) was sane."

The defense rested without any direct denial of the crime.

It climaxed its case with a diagnosis by Dr. Harold S. Hulbert, Chicago psychiatrist, that the young Missouri defendant's mental age was between 16 and 17 years and that on July 24 he was "insane with manic depressive insanity."

Covering the period of their 10-year courtship the question proffered Dr. Hulbert's emphasized the defense's contention the farmer-carrier had wrapped his whole life and activities in his love for Louise Shaffer, only to learn suddenly that she had married Dr. Bauer, a man Zenge had never seen before.

But it contained no reference to the doctor's kidnapping from Ann Arbor, or the brutal pen knife assault which left him bleeding to death on a vacant south side lot here.

"Would it be characteristic of a manic-depressive man to carefully plan and carefully execute a homicide, and then cover his tracks so well that detection would be difficult?" asked Prosecutor Charles S. Dougherty.

"The answer is no," replied the witness.

'VALLEY' SCOTTY GETS HIS CASTLE

Mystery Man of Desert Rolls Into Town With 100-Gallon Automobile.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—(AP)—"Death Valley" Scotty, mystery man of America's most forbidding desert, chugged around town today in his gas cayuse.

"These city trails ain't no place for this locomotive," he said as he twisted the wheel of the most powerful automobile in Southern California.

"It's a specially made model for traversing the desert mountains into Death Valley, where the 20-mule teams used to trek with borax."

"It goes 700 miles without stopping," said Scotty. "Got a 100-gallon gas tank and carry 10 gallons of oil."

"The big news is that I got the title to the castle." It is the loneliest spot in the United States, 60 miles from the nearest living soul. It cost $2,381,000 and Scotty lives there alone.

An act of congress was necessary because the area had been designated as a national park.

Scotty still has a big bank roll. For more than 30 years he has kept the world guessing where his gold comes from.

"I've spent about eight million," he said.

"Gold? You know I got a little mill of my own at the castle now. Just grind out whatever I need. Still got plenty. Let's go and get a bite to eat."

RELIEF BILL PASSES MISSISSIPPI HOUSE

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 17.—(AP)—The lower house of the Mississippi legislature late today passed an amended state emergency relief bill by a vote of 84 to 30.

As the house debated the emergency relief bill today, the senate reopened debate on a property tax repeal bill after having defeated the measure by a vote of 25 to 18 yesterday, and voted to leave the spirited fight open until next week, setting next Wednesday at 10 o'clock for debate on a motion to reconsider its adverse action of yesterday.

A spirited fight is expected when the relief appropriation bill hits the floor, as the house appropriations committee has drastically cut the senate's approved appropriation of $1,000,000 to finance relief until March 1 to $650,000.

NEW ENGLAND SPINNERS EXPRESS NEW FEARS
BOSTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Northern cotton manufacturers expressed fear tonight the release of government control of business had not been assured by the supreme court's invalidation of the NRA and that present and proposed legislation endangered industry's freedom.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, attended by 300 mill owners, Russell T. Fisher, secretary of the association, said the full import of two acts—the social security act and Wagner labor disputes bill—had not yet been felt.

He also contended that the Ellenbogen bill, proposed for passage at the last session of congress, was so "all-inclusive in anything like its present form that it would literally transfer the management of the textile industry into the hands of the government and labor unions."

THREE MEALS A DAY

HOME TESTED RECIPES BY Sally Sawyer

A WAFFLE SUPPER.
Hot Tomato Soup Cheese Waffles
Waffles Butter Syrup
Creole Shrimps Coffee
Buttered Peas Waffles.

Measure 2 cups pancake flour into mixing bowl. In another bowl beat 1 egg and combine with 2 cups water or milk. Pour liquid and 2 tablespoons melted butter or shortening into bowl. Beat smooth. This makes six waffles. Have waffle iron hot enough to bake a waffle perfectly in three minutes. Grease iron lightly with paraffin after heating. Grease only once. Serve waffles as soon as done. Never stack. Stacking spoils crispness.

Every buffet supper needs an ornamental dish to lend an inimitable flavor and atmosphere. Just such a dish may be fashioned from a cake of ice, two dozen oysters, and all the "fixings." The finished masterpiece will catch the eye, stir the appetite, and then satisfy it.

Oysters in Ice.
One cake of ice, 2 dozen oysters, olives, lettuce, sprays of mint, quarters of lemon, cocktail sauce.

Hollow the center of a small cake of ice—six inches square and three inches deep—line with lettuce and put in 20 oysters. Decorate each corner of the ice with an oyster in the half shell and dot the remaining surface of the ice with stuffed olives. Surround the ice with a garnish of mint leaves and lettuce. Serve four—with quarters of lemon and cocktail sauce.

In these days of electrical refrigeration, a pleasing variant may be fashioned by filling a large wooden salad bowl with flaked or crushed ice, leaving a hollow in the center for the oysters.

There are many versions of the ideal cocktail sauce, but one of the most popular may be made from ingredients found in every pantry. The mixture should be prepared in a jar or wide-mouthed bottle.

Oyster Cocktail Sauce.
Six tablespoons tomato sauce, 2 tablespoons horse radish, 4 tablespoons lemon juice, celery salt, tobacco sauce.

Two tablespoons of the sauce should be served with every six oysters.

Baked Oysters.
Season with salt and pepper 1 dozen oysters on the half-shell; sprinkle with salt and pepper, and dip in flour. Beat 1 egg with 2 tablespoons of water and dip the oysters carefully so that every part is covered with the egg. Then dip in very fine, dry bread or cracker crumbs and lay aside until all have been dipped. Let stand for 20 to 30 minutes before frying. For a very fluffy fried oyster, dip once more in the egg and cracker crumbs, or place in a frying basket and cook in deep fat 4 minutes at 375 degrees; drain on paper and serve with a sauce made by adding 1-2 teaspoonful each of chopped parsley, capers, and cherries, and 1-2 cup of chili sauce, to 1 cup of mayonnaise. (Serves three.)

"Figs in Blankets."
Use large oysters and wrap each one in a thin strip of bacon. Place in a pan with bacon ends under the oyster. Bake in a quick oven until the bacon is crisp. Serve immediately.

Mixed Oysters.
One quart of oysters, 4 eggs, 1 cup of bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons of butter, salt, pepper, mustard and grated nutmeg to taste, 1 tablespoon of minced onion.

Drain and chop oysters fine. Add the beaten eggs, bread crumbs, butter, seasonings and onion. Mix well and cook on top of the stove, stirring constantly until of the consistency of soft scrambled eggs. Heat oyster shells, individual ramekins, or a baking dish, and fill, covering with grated crumbs and bits of butter. Bake quickly in a hot oven (450 degrees) until a light brown. Serve while very hot.

Oyster Chowder.
Two cups boiled rice, 1 cup chopped celery, 50 large oysters (1 quart), 2 egg yolks, 1 cup milk, 1 cup boiling water.

Drain and chop the oysters. Put a layer of chopped celery in a kettle, add a layer of cooked rice, a layer of oysters. Season with salt and pepper. Repeat until all rice, celery and oysters are used. Pour over this, boiling water and cook slowly 25 minutes. Beat well the yolks of the eggs and milk; add to the chowder. Cook five minutes, stirring carefully. Serve hot.

Creamed Oysters and Mushrooms.
Six tablespoons butter, 6 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon paprika, 2 medium cans cream of mushroom soup, 24 oysters (1 1/2 pint), 4 shelled hard cooked eggs, sliced.

Melt butter in top of double boiler; add the flour and paprika and blend. Add the soup and stir until smooth and thick. Cook the oysters in their own liquor until the edges curl and add with the hard-cooked eggs to the soup mixture. Heat well and serve in patty shells or on toast.

'ALFALFA BILL' PLANS FEDERAL THRIFT GROUP
BROKEN BOW, Okla., Oct. 17.—(AP)—"Alfalfa Bill" Murray stopped his one-mule wagon at his little farm on Yashua creek today and announced he will lead a movement to elect a congress with moral frugal habits.

The man whose "bread, butter, bacon and beans" platform failed to win him the democratic presidential nomination, said he has become "national director" for an organization to be known as "The Association for Economy and Tax Equality."

Designed to seek equalization of taxes, reduction of governmental expenses and the elimination of any more bond issues so those outstanding can be paid off, the organization will have its headquarters in the modest Murray farmhouse. The former Oklahoma governor is equipping the office with stenographers, clerks and typewriters.

There'll be some directors, said Murray, but who they are is no one's affair until Murray gets ready to disclose his hand.

CHURCH WILL INSTALL STEWARDS ON SUNDAY
Capitol View Methodist church will install the newly-elected board of stewards at a service Sunday morning, the Rev. W. J. DeBardeleben, pastor, announced yesterday.

Those to be installed are T. W. Teasley, P. E. Davenport, H. T. Warlick, J. W. Hicks, J. T. Jones, E. R. Allen, T. H. McKinney, C. H. Garrison, E. B. Posner, C. B. Purcell, W. L. Marks, Kinsey York, H. G. Baker, W. H. Sivils, H. S. Graham, W. W. Allen, T. J. Duncan, G. W. Corley, W. H. Vance, Sam Lee, Roy Wilhite, Miss Peggie Osborne, Mrs. J. H. McElroy, J. W. Perry, E. H. Bernhardt, Mark E. Lawhon, J. H. Ernest, J. C. Garrett, E. B. Decker and H. M. White.

Honorary stewards are A. H. Farnell, W. B. Decker, Dr. L. N. Osborne and E. R. Drake.

MAN HELD FOR SHOT AND DRUNK DRIVING
DeKalb county police yesterday were holding Milton Cronan, 33, of 1033 Seaboard avenue, on charges of shooting at another and drunken driving after a wild chase in which L. N. New, of Lithonia, had his machine peppered with buckshot.

New, he told police, was forced off the Stone mountain highway near Glen Echo by Cronan. Licensed, he pursued Cronan to get his name and license number.

While trying to telephone the number to police in Glen Echo, New reported, he was interrupted by Cronan, shotgun in hand. New fled, but not until the back of his car was stopped a load of buckshot. The chase ran several miles, New finally outdistancing Cronan long enough to summon police who took Cronan into custody.

TWO STORES SUFFER

$17,000 FIRE DAMAGE

Blamed on Carelessness or Arson by Burglars.

Damage expected to total $17,000 resulted early yesterday from fire in the Lane Drug Store at 1000 Virginia avenue, and the King Hardware Company branch next door at 996 Virginia avenue. Police blamed the blaze on carelessness or deliberate arson by thieves.

The Lane store, according to H. C. Naylor, president of the company, will be completely rebuilt and restocked. Mr. Naylor estimated damage, covered by insurance, would run from $10,000 to $12,000.

Fred L. Burrell, manager of the King hardware branch, tentatively set the smoke and water damage to his by insurance, pending completion of an inventory.

The Lane branch, Mr. Naylor said, will undergo extensive improvements and enlargements in the course of restocking and building at $5,000, covered by insurance. The King hardware branch, which had been broken open and about $3 in cash taken.

Customers of the store, Mr. Naylor said, will be served from another branch by calling the Virginia avenue branch telephone.

The blaze was the second serious fire in two days. Damage estimated at $15,000 was done Wednesday afternoon when the roof burned off the Calphurnia apartments, at 373 Moreland avenue. Two alarms were turned in and seven companies fought the flames two hours. National Realty Management Company, operators of the 24-family apartment, said the loss was covered by insurance.

CANTON SLAYER GOES TO DEATH CHAIR TODAY

Governor Talmadge having declined pleas for clemency, George P. McRae, of Canton, is scheduled to be electrocuted at the state prison farm at Milledgeville today. The execution is scheduled for 11 o'clock.

The Governor yesterday received a report from a group of doctors he had appointed to test McRae's sanity and all informed him that, in their belief, the slayer is sane.

McRae was convicted of the holdup and murder of Virgil Turner, Canton taxicab driver and athlete last year.

AUNT JEMIMA'S MAGIC MENU

HAM 'N' BUCKWHEAT WAFFLE BREAKFAST

Menu for Ham 'n' Buckwheat Waffle Breakfast

Quartered Oranges or Chilled Fruit Juice
Aunt Jemima Buckwheat Waffles
Butter Syrup
Fried Ham Coffee

Directions for making Aunt Jemima Buckwheat Waffles
1. Mix milk or water with equal amounts of Aunt Jemima Buckwheat according to package recipe.
2. Have waffle iron just hot enough. To test, put a drop of water on iron. If it goes right up in a puff of steam, iron is too hot. If it bounces around a second before evaporating, iron is hot enough.
3. Grease iron very lightly. Don't pour grease on. Spread it thinly with pad or brush.
4. Pour batter into iron. Bake until a golden brown.

One order to your grocer brings everything for this marvelous low-cost meal. Complete with printed easy directions. Wonderfully quick to make with the special buckwheat blend that guarantees far more fluffiness.

THOSE light, fluffy waffles with that soul-satisfying flavor—they took the Old South by storm! And today, wherever people love good food, these same waffles are all the rage.

It's easy for you to get them light and well-done because Aunt Jemima's special blend guarantees far more fluffiness than ordinary bread or biscuit flour. For Aunt Jemima's contains only about half the amount of gluten of ordinary flour. And gluten is the sticky-like substance in flour that resists heat and slows up the baking process.

That's why, with about half the gluten of ordinary flour, Aunt Jemima's come out so perfectly done, so tender, fluffy and light in the few short minutes waffles are on the fire. And note this, ladies, an Aunt Jemima waffle, a square of butter and 1 1/2 ounces of syrup are only 382 calories.

Yet standard diets permit a total of 2,000 to 4,000 calories in the three daily meals.

Your grocer will deliver any of the ingredients you need for the Aunt Jemima menu above. Order now.

Any ingredients for the Magic Menu shown above, with printed, easy directions are supplied by all grocers showing this display.

End of Wampas Baby Stars Reached As Press Organization Disbands

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Oct. 17.—(AP) There will be no more Wampas baby stars in Hollywood.

The Wampas, motion picture press agents' organization, is in the parlance of Hollywood "folding" because of lack of interest.

Annually since 1922, with the exception of 1930 and 1934, Wampas has named the 13 likeliest actresses—who, it hoped, eventually would become stars. The selections attracted national attention.

The press agents were pretty good pickers, too, because many of their choices later became full-fledged stars, including Joan Crawford, Joan Blondell, Bessie Love, Lila Lee, Clara Bow, Dorothy Mackall, Dolores Costello, Dolores Del Rio, Janet Gaynor and Lupe Velez.

"The Wampas has served its purpose," Lindsay Parsons, secretary, said today.

"It was formed in 1920 to exploit the press agents of the picture industry as a group, and to make them an integral part of the business."

"The baby star idea was to gain recognition for the organization, but we also had an altruistic motive in that we felt there were many capable youngsters in Hollywood who deserved to be brought to the producers' attention."

"However, in late years there has been a lack of interest in the organization and some of its work has been taken over by the producers' association. Rather than attempt to continue on a social basis, we decided to disband."

Originally, the Wampas, officially the Western Association of Motion Picture Advertisers, checked the credentials of Hollywood newspaper correspondents, but this job is now being done by the producers' association.

The Wampas' office also has a publicity committee which handles much of the work formerly done by the Wampas. Some "Wampas" expressed the opinion that the producers felt the press agent "union" was becoming too strong and therefore caused its important, self-imposed duties to become those of the Hays office.

SCHOOLS TO CLOSE ON ROOSEVELT DAY

Reports From Many Sections Tell of Thousands Coming for Celebration.

The Roosevelt Home-coming Celebration headquarters here yesterday announced receipt of a telegram from J. W. Kizer, of Cornelia, revealing that the Ninth District Association of School Superintendents and Teachers at a meeting at Hartwell had voted a holiday for the school children on Roosevelt Day and was planning to bring thousands of children here to see the President.

President Roosevelt is scheduled to speak in Atlanta Thanksgiving week. The headquarters also received a report from Mrs. Cleo V. Pearson, of Manchester, stating that 500 cars would come here for the celebration from Meriwether county.

Mrs. Pearson said she and former Sheriff Jake Jarrell, of Meriwether county, visited hundreds of people in the county and nearly all of them promised to be here for the celebration.

It also was announced during the day that Mayor F. L. Hicks, of Calhoun, had declared a public holiday in his city and reported hundreds from Calhoun and Gordon county would be here for the festivities.

The Roosevelt Young Voters' Club, an organization which is seeking to interest new voters in the Roosevelt cause, yesterday announced the appointment of Mrs. A. S. McGhee, of Macon, as executive secretary. Mrs. McGhee will maintain offices in the Henry Grady hotel here.

EMORY REOPENS GEOLOGY DIVISION

Professor J. G. Lester in Charge of Re-Established Department.

Under the direction of Professor J. G. Lester, Emory University has reopened the geology department and the administration hopes to present a first-class division in the near future.

Although such a department existed at Emory College as early as 1840, it was allowed to die out and has not been revived until this year. A large collection of minerals, stored at Oxford for many years, has been moved to the Atlanta campus and is now being classified under the direction of Professor Lester.

The assortment of Georgia minerals included in the collection has been made practically complete as a result of prospecting trips made by Professor Lester and through donations by persons interested in the field.

In addition, Professor Lester has about 600 pounds of ore, rocks and fossils, including a collection of rocks formerly valued at $400, on his return from Colorado, where he has spent the last 18 months studying at the University of Colorado.

Included in the courses offered in the department during the year are physical geology, economic mineralogy, historical geology, advanced economic mineralogy, the economic geology of Georgia, and crystallography.

OFFICERS ARE NAMED FOR MEDICAL SOCIETY

Fifth District Group, and Auxiliary Gather in Annual Meeting.

Dr. Hamilton G. Ansley last night was elected president of the Fifth District Medical Society in annual meeting at the Academy of Medicine. The woman's auxiliary of the fifth district also met.

Dr. Olin S. Cofer was named vice president and Dr. Henry Poer, secretary-treasurer.

One of the highlights of the session was a discussion by Dr. George H. Bunch of a new field of cardiac surgery credited with saving many patients. Dr. Bunch, of Columbia, S. C., explained the technique whereby abscessed conditions of the heart have been drained by surgery, a feat previously considered impossible.

Address of welcome to the society and to members of the Fulton County Medical Society was delivered by Dr. E. D. Shanks, president of the county group, who was introduced by Dr. George W. Fuller, president of the district.

Response was made by Dr. Ben H. Minchew, of Waycross, president-elect of the Medical Association of Georgia. Dr. Roy W. Childs then introduced Dr. George H. Bunch, of Columbia, S. C., who spoke on suppurative pericarditis. Discussion of the topic was led by Dr. Dan C. Elkin.

Motion pictures and lantern slides of transplantation of the ureters into the sigmoid accompanied a discussion of the subject by Dr. L. G. Baggett, of Atlanta, who is widely credited with development in this field of surgery.

Dr. E. G. Ballenger led the discussion, which preceded the introduction of Dr. John P. Henry, of Memphis, by Dr. Hal M. Davidson. Dr. Henry discussed allergic affections. Discussion of the topic was led by Dr. Abner W. Calhoun.

Retiring officers of the society are Dr. Fuller, Dr. Ansley, vice president; Dr. Cofer, secretary-treasurer; Dr. M. C. Pruitt, vice counselor.

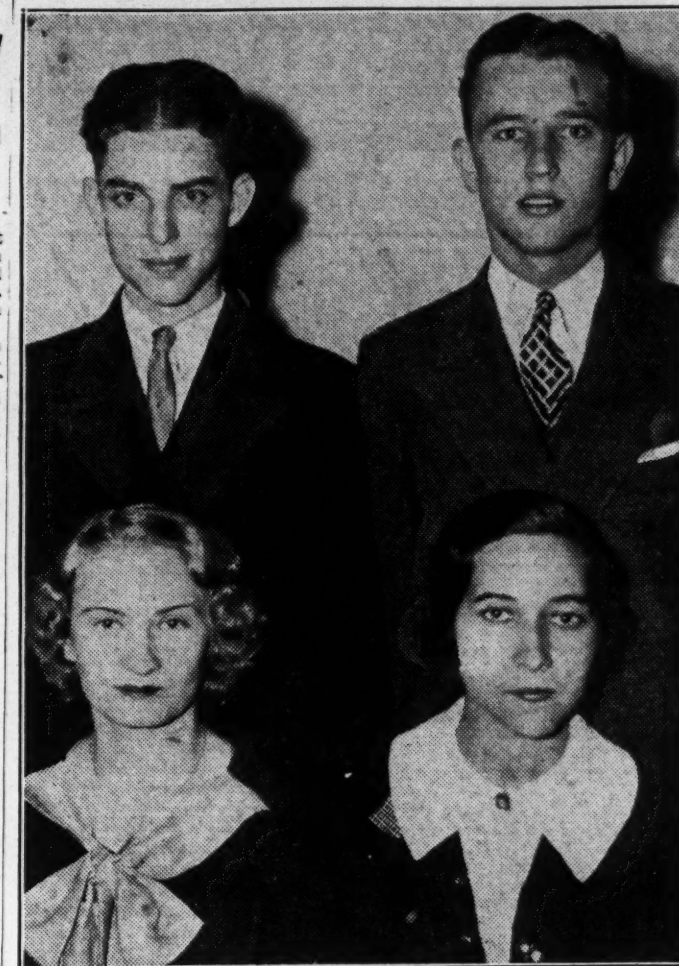

The auxiliary, presided over by Mrs. Joseph Yampolsky, heard greetings from Dr. Fuller, who presented Dr. Henry for a discussion of allergic problems. Dr. Minchew and Dr. James M. Brawner also spoke. Dr. Brawner is chairman of the advisory committee to the woman's auxiliary of the Medical Association of Georgia. He discussed preventive medicine.

Reports were rendered by county auxiliary presidents. Mrs. J. Calhoun McDougall, Fulton president, and Mrs. H. G. Ansley, Cobb president, spoke. A buffet supper was served before the meeting by the auxiliary members.

Labor Pushed Despite Confusion of Federal Assistance in Program.

Labor crews yesterday continued their work on two separate sections of Atlanta sewers as Washington officials awaited the return of Secretary Harold L. Ickes, PWA administrator, before a showdown comes on whether the government will allow transfer of the $4,500,000, dedicated by WPA towards modernization of the sewer system of metropolitan Atlanta.

If the transfer is made from PWA, as has been reported, the city would get only about $1,000,000 in federal funds instead of the $4,500,000 which has been set up.

Workmen continued their tasks unabated, apparently undisturbed about the reported transfer of the funds, which would cost labor and material men in Atlanta more than $3,500,000 and the people a modern sewer system.

Secretary Ickes was with President Roosevelt on the Pacific cruise and is not expected back in Washington with in the next several days.

EXTENSION OF BROAD IN COMMITTEE TODAY

City co-operation in the move to extend Broad street into Whitehall street probably will be voted this afternoon at a meeting of the streets committee of council. Alderman Ellis B. Barrett, chairman, will preside.

Mayor Key yesterday pledged his co-operation to a delegation of prominent Atlantans, headed by Walter Rich, president of Rich's, Inc., and Thomas K. Glenn, leading banker.

The mayor suggested that aid of the federal government, the state and county be sought in the undertaking.

Fulton county commissioners already have indicated their desire to prosecute the project, and have asked the city to assist. The formal request of the county will be before the streets committee at this afternoon's meeting.

The city engineer has estimated the cost of the entire undertaking at about $600,000, but Mr. Rich yesterday told the mayor he believed it would be possible to complete it for about half that figure.

Merita
baked-in flavor BREAD

Leave it to the unspoiled tastes of children, if you want a true test of bread quality. Every mother knows that putting something over on Bill or Mary, when it comes to bread, just isn't done. Youngsters prefer Merita Bread because they like the taste of its fragrant, oven-fresh flavor. But what's more important, the very things that make them like Merita, make it good for them. The rich milk that gives it flavor is laden with proteins and minerals; its white slices are the most easily digestible of foods; and the flour, made from selected wheat, has an abundance of carbohydrates which supply quick and healthful energy for young bodies. Mothers who know the value and economy of bread in the diet of boys and girls know that Merita Bread solves their problem.

HOW MERITA GUARANTEES YOU FRESH BREAD

Merita Bread is baked every morning. As it leaves the oven it is sealed in heavily waxed paper. Its fragrant oven-freshness is held captive until you yourself unseal it in your own kitchen a few hours later.

Fast delivery trucks rush Merita Bread to your grocers' twice daily. Because of this frequent delivery method your grocer is never overstocked.

You can be sure that when you buy a loaf of Merita Bread it's as fresh as if you had baked it yourself today. Merita Bakers guarantee it.

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Ministers of the Presbyterian Synod of Georgia today addressed a resolution to President Roosevelt expressing themselves as "unalterably convinced divine assistance and leadership constitute the only safe and sure road to recovery."

Replying to Mr. Roosevelt's recent request for opinions from the clergy concerning economic conditions as well as remedies applied by the administration, the ministers called on the President to set aside a day of prayer for divine guidance.

"We respectfully request and urge our national government led by our President," the resolution said, "to acknowledge our dependence upon Almighty God and that a day be set apart to be devoted to prayer and supplication asking divine guidance in all our efforts."

The resolution was unanimously adopted at the conclusion of the synod's annual meeting.

The assembly left to a committee the selection of a meeting place for next year.

Election of committees for synodical activities in the ensuing year as well as trustees and directors of various Presbyterian educational institutions occupied a prominent place at the closing session.

5 P.M. is a test of how you FEEL

"How do I feel . . .
Swell!—why do you ask?"

"WHY do I ask? Simply because a few weeks ago you looked and acted as if you were about to give up."

"What happened?"

This man reasoned that his body needed toning-up . . . and he put his faith in S.S.S. Blood Tonic because he knew and believed in it by reputation. He took a course of S.S.S., with happy results, of course.

There are scientific findings back of S.S.S. effectiveness. If you have a lagging appetite . . . a general let-down feeling . . . a don't-care, tired attitude toward people and things . . . look to your blood cells. Why? Because they carry the very oxygen you breathe to the tissues . . . making use of food factors for the production of energy . . . tissue repair . . . body tone . . . muscular and mental freshness.

S.S.S. starts the gastric juices in the stomach and provides, too, the minerals the body requires in rebuilding those red cells . . . that work, worry, and the way we live, have broken down.

It is interesting to know that the blood makes a complete circuit of the body about 200 times daily. The strength of the blood depends upon its tiny cells and their hemo-globin content. If you suspect a lowered blood count, which is a common cause of pale-ness, loss of strength and vitality, do give S.S.S. a trial. At all drug stores.

Proposed 15-Mill Tax Limitation
Praised and Attacked by Georgians*Dr. Sanford Tells Educators Tax Reform Needed in State.

CLARKESVILLE, Ga., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Solution of the school problem in Georgia, says Chancellor S. V. Sanford, of the University System of Georgia, is "allied to and dependent on the solution of the tax problem."

"An important step towards needed tax reforms is the 15 mills limitation," he told a district education conference here today.

"Since property taxes have become excessive and no longer yield sufficient income to pay the cost of government, it is evident we must revise our tax system, keeping always in mind that taxation on the ability to pay rather than on the possession of tangible property is a fair basis."

"We cannot have adequate revenue so long as a person who does not own real estate but has an income makes no contribution to the support of the local government, while the person who owns real estate but gets no income at all sees his property sell for taxes."

He said that "when our people fully realize that property is overburdened with taxes, greater use will be made of other forms of taxation."

B. M. Grier, superintendent of schools at Athens, told the conference that in an era of "significant social and economic changes" it is fortunate that a government which permits adjustments necessary to meet these changes.

Must Push Program.

Education must push toward execution of its legislative program in Georgia as one means of responding to the challenge, the Athens schoolman said.

Teacher tenure and retirement was stressed as a major part of the legislative program, with the cost of retirement systems met by both teachers and the public reported favored by most recently enacted laws.

"A retirement plan vitally interests the teacher, the children and the taxpayers," Grier said, because it assures "training and travel for the teacher without endangering provision for later years, steps up the efficiency in the classroom, and makes possible replacement of superannuated teachers, who draw maximum salaries, by younger teachers who begin at smaller salaries."

"As to equalization of school opportunities, Grier said Georgians had acted on two false assumptions with reference to education: First, that from the standpoint of financial support "we have made it primarily a local function"; and second, "we have acted as though the ad valorem tax is the only source of revenue in our economic structure for school maintenance."

Grier stressed the act passed by the last general assembly, and vetoed by the Governor, which he said would "more nearly equalize educational opportunities in the state."

He urged his hearers to secure a copy of the bill and study it with a view to making suggestions to the G. E. A. legislative committee as to modifications.

Saying "you cannot divorce education and taxation," the speaker said if the bill he had discussed was to become effective "we must have an increased state appropriation."

CLARKESVILLE TEACHER IS GIVEN HIGH HONOR

CLARKESVILLE, Ga., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Hugh A. Inglis, 29-year-old instructor in the Clarksville High school, has been designated as Georgia's master vocational agriculture teacher for 1934-1935.

The award is the highest honor possible for an agricultural teacher in the Georgia public schools. It is made on a basis of the highest type of work accomplished during the year ending July 1.

The award is a trip to the national convention of the Future Farmers of America, in Kansas City, October 21, 22 and 23.

Inglis was born on a farm near Clarksville, and was educated in Clarksville schools, at the former Ninth District A. and M. school here and at the University of Georgia.

Speakers at Kiwanis Session Say Schools Would Suffer.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Notice that ratification of a proposed amendment to the state constitution to limit taxes for all purposes to 15 mills would cripple public schools was given by several speakers tonight at the convention of Kiwanis Clubs of Georgia.

The annual convention of the organization, which will continue through Saturday, opened today, with various entertainment features on the afternoon program, and a symposium on education the chief feature of tonight's session.

One of the speakers who discussed education was S. D. Copeland, of Augusta, past president of the Kiwanis Club there, who urged that "those who are sponsoring the 15-mill tax limit amendment make a definite statement of what they propose to do toward financing education in Georgia."

Governor Talmadge has advocated adoption of the 15-mill amendment.

Copeland said if it were adopted, "it will mean that revenue for the support of the local schools will be reduced 60 per cent or more. This will be a calamity. It will mean that the system cannot function."

Augusta Lauded.

He praised Augusta for its provision of educational facilities, well-trained teachers, and the fact that it has always paid teachers' salaries on time.

R. M. Dillard, president of Gainesville Kiwanis Club, said the only solution for the school problem in the state was more money—or taxes.

Discussing probable sources of added tax revenues, he asked if a "sales tax paid every time we make a purchase would create less disturbance than all the forms of taxes with which we are now burdened. And I mean a uniform sales tax without any exemptions," he said.

That is one trouble with our income tax today. There are loopholes that the smart fellows know how to get through and avoid some of the taxes they are supposed to pay."

He emphasized that he did not regard a sales tax as a solution to the problem, but said his suggestions were made to "remind you that some improvement in taxation is necessary and that a uniform sales tax, in my opinion, will be of much help in the solution of the problem."

Alan MacDonnell, of Macon; J. Lewis Merritt, of Americus; G. W. Truquart, of Savannah, and W. G. Hogue, of Lincoln, moderators of the session, were among other speakers on tonight's program.

Feature of tomorrow's program is an ocean trip on the Steamer Dorchester, and an address by Scott Loftin, of Jacksonville, former president of the American Bar Association.

BAPTISTS CONVENE AT CRAWFORDVILLE

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ga., Oct. 17.—At the initial session of the Georgia Baptist Association here, Dr. W. A. Hogan, of Lincoln, moderator for 27 years, and W. T. Callaway, of Rayle, clerk since 1919, were re-elected.

Kopp, of Greensboro; Dr. Aquila Chambliss, president of Bessie Tift College, delivered one of the principal addresses. Dr. J. W. Merritt, an executive of the Georgia Baptist convention, and Dr. Homer L. Grice, representing the Sunday school board of the Southern Baptist convention, were among other speakers.

Many FHA Loans Made.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 17.—W. H. Howell, field representative of the Federal Housing Administration, said here that Augusta's record in securing FHA loans "is one of the best in the nation."

MACON FAIR TO DRAW

MACON, Ga., Oct. 17.—(AP)—More than 5,000 4-H Club girls, Future Farmers of America and Boy Scouts are expected to attend the Georgia State Fair in the interest of their exhibits here this week.

Events are planned for the club girls and the Future Farmers who are holding their conventions at the fair today, tomorrow and Saturday. Boy Scouts are holding their jamboree here.

The special students' events are under direction of Miss Rose McGee, district home demonstration agent, of Tifton, and Miss Emmie Nelson, assistant state 4-H Club leader, of Athens.

Breadmaking and dressmaking are two of the principal contests sponsored for 4-H girls. Award to the winner in the breadmaking contest is a trip to the national boys' and girls' congress in Chicago this winter.

In the dress revue each girl will model her own creations. Only one girl from each county is permitted to enter the contest. These have been chosen in county elimination contests.

Almost double its last year's enrollment, the Georgia Association of Future Farmers opened its seventh annual state convention in the Macon auditorium here today.

After a 93 per cent increase in membership for Georgia during the past year, officials of the organization said they expect an attendance between 1,200 and 1,500 by tomorrow and Saturday.

Crisp countians saw their agricultural exhibits win the coveted blue ribbon and first prize of $150 at the state fair.

Other winners, in the order they placed, included exhibits from Clayton, Pike, Lamar, Spalding and Monroe counties.

F. D. R. CRITICS HIT AT HAHIRA MEET

Rivers, Grayson and Deen
Speak at Old-Age Pension Session.

HAHIRA, Ga., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Speaker E. D. Rivers, of the Georgia house of representatives, tonight told a citizens' mass meeting which organized a club in the interests of old-age pensions for this state that he was "sick and tired of high officials of some states attacking President Roosevelt."

The speaker was given an ovation by an overflow crowd that filled the high school auditorium here, when W. W. Webb, who called the meeting, introduced him as the "next governor of Georgia."

Rivers avoided any mention of his possible candidacy and highly praised the national administration. In attacking critics of President Roosevelt he made no mention of Governor Talmadge, who has frequently criticized Roosevelt.

Rivers suggested that the Hahira meeting form itself into a nucleus for a state-wide body to fight for the old-age pension law.

Spence M. Grayson, state representative from Chatham county, who today filed a mandamus suit in Lanier superior court in an attempt to allow Georgians to vote on old-age pensions, in explaining his action seeking to force a vote on the old-age pension amendment—vetoed at the last legislature by Governor Talmadge, said he would fight until he "dropped" for the "constitutional rights of the citizens of Georgia."

Congressman Braswell Deen, of the eighth district, explained the national social security act, passed by the recent session of congress and praised President Roosevelt and scored critics of the chief executive.

Leaders in the gathering said it was one of the largest of its kind ever held in Hahira.

Vote on Old Age Pension Act Sought
In Mandamus Plea Filed by Grayson*Rivers, Redwine and Wilson Named Defendants in Suit and Judge W. R. Smith Sets November 9 as Date to Consider Petition Filed at Lakeland.

LAKELAND, Ga., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Seeking to allow Georgians to vote on a proposed old age pension amendment to the state constitution—a proposal which Governor Talmadge vetoed—a mandamus petition was filed in Lanier superior court today.

Speaker E. D. Rivers, of the state house of representatives; President Charles Redwine, of the state senate, and John Wilson, secretary of state, were named defendants in the petition. The paper was filed by Spence Grayson, of Savannah, attorney and member of the state legislature, who led the fight for the old age pension plan in the last legislature.

Judge W. R. Smith, of the Alabama superior court circuit, sanctioned the filing of the petition and ordered the defendants to show cause at a hearing in Nashville, Ga., November 9, why the prayers of the petitioners should not be granted.

Grayson, Marion Allen, of Milledgeville, and Stephen Elliot, of Savannah, signed the petition as attorneys for the petitioners, who were listed as: J. J. Horrigan, F. A. McNeil and C. F. Schupp, of Chatham county; J. C. Hall, of Fulton county, and Albert Ingram, of Richmond county.

Speaker Rivers lives here, Redwine resides in Fayetteville, and Wilson in Atlanta. The petition named Redwine and Wilson as non-resident defendants.

Speaker Rivers, who was on the program at an old age pension rally tonight at Hahira, has announced himself in support of President Roosevelt and is regarded as in favor of state participation in the President's social security program.

Quotes Redwine.

President Redwine, asked recently as to his stand on the advertising of the old age pension amendment "refused to reply," the petition said.

The petition asks that Rivers and Redwine be required to show cause at the hearing why they should not cause the proposed constitutional amendment to be advertised, advertising being required by law, in advance of a vote on such proposed constitutional amendments.

Secretary Wilson was instructed to show cause why he should not furnish the necessary form and directions to the ordinaries for the placing of the proposal on the ballot.

The general election will be held in Georgia in the fall of 1938.

The amendment, if ratified by the people (provided it should be placed on the ballot) would empower the general assembly to levy a per capita tax for "the support of and maintenance of the aged poor of the state, under such restrictions and limitations as it (the general assembly) may impose."

Apparently laying the groundwork for a fight in the United States supreme court if the petitioners so desire, the petition says the federal constitution provides that:

"The right of the citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or any state, on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude."

A provision of the state constitution that the people have the "inherent, sole and exclusive right" of "altering and abolishing their constitution" also was quoted. The state constitution is also quoted as requiring the general assembly to cause "to be published" proposals to amend the constitution. The petition avers further that "no governmental agency may intervene" in the submission of a proposal of this kind to the people.

FRANCE MUST CHOOSE BETWEEN IL DUCE, KING

Britain Demands Clear-Cut 'Yes' or 'No' from French Government.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The long post-war era of Anglo-French co-operation in Europe hung in the balance tonight.

Great Britain awaited an immediate and clear cut French explanation of where she stands with respect to enforcement of sanctions and upholding the League covenant.

In an attempt to bring to end weeks of uncertainty on whether France could be relied upon for support in the event of an Italian attack upon the British fleet in the Mediterranean, Downing Street questioned Quai d'Orsay point blank.

Nothing but a straightforward "yes" or "no" will be acceptable to London. In the final showdown, officials here firmly believed, France would return a favorable answer.

"No" Dangerous.

An unfavorable response would open extremely grave possibilities that officials declined to speculate as to what then might be expected.

Appreciating the difficult position Premier Pierre Laval faces at home, the British government has given him a few days to answer, but made clear what was termed further French "quibbling" will not be permitted.

Another development with grave possibilities was an unconfirmed report a British camel corps suffered casualties in a clash with Italian troops along the border of British Somaliland. Officials were skeptical of the report.

The British press, under apparent restraint from high sources, did not print the camel corps reports.

An official explanation as to why the British demanded a showdown from France was that inasmuch as the recent unsatisfactory tone of the French press raised grave doubts as to exactly where France stood, the British government felt it owed a duty to the British public to clear up the uncertainty.

Would Split Duce, Laval.

The timing of the British demands just as Laval was making new approaches to Premier Mussolini was regarded as one of the highest importance. Informal quarters were represented as seeing in the move a definite British strategy of breaking up Mussolini's wooing of Laval and once and for all end the seemingly developing

Render 176 Years of Service to Uncle Sam

Anglo-French tension, as indicated in the press of both nations.

In that connection the Star said: "The feeling among European diplomats at the present crisis in Anglo-French relations far transcends the importance of all other aspects of the Ethiopian war."

Denying reports published here Laval held a conference with Sir George Russell Clerk, the British ambassador, and became furious when pressed, authoritative sources said Laval was his usual bland self throughout.

FRANCE IS EXPECTED TO SIDE WITH BRITAIN

PARIS, Oct. 17.—(AP)—France probably will say "yes" with reservations Monday to Great Britain's demand for a showdown on whether French warships will come to her aid if she is attacked by Italy in the turbulent Mediterranean, officials conceded tonight.

The premier, informed observers believed, will call his cabinet into session Monday morning to ratify such a promise. He has delayed answering Britain's warning that France "must choose between Italy and the League" because of fears the United Kingdom was seeking to lead France into a blockade of Mussolini's nation.

Officials, however, indicated a negative reply to the British demand would mean France would lose British support in any brush with Germany.

British sources, too, held "there is little doubt as to the way France will go," although the conservative French press continued its warnings against the danger of following Great Britain blindly.

Raid Drill at Toulon.

As France shaped her reply, Toulon, her greatest Mediterranean naval base, resounded with the scream of sirens and the drone of planes in an air raid defense drill.

Men o'war in the harbor trained their big guns on "enemy" planes; the navy and civilian personnel scurried to cover from imaginary bombs and

Laval, during a day of apparent indecision, at first was represented as inclined to refuse the British a promise of French naval aid if the former should be the victim of an unprovoked attack by Italy before actual League of Nations orders for a warship blockade are issued.

But tonight high placed informants said his reply would be reservedly favorable, although he was described as desiring to wait until after Sunday's senatorial elections to avoid a possible storm of criticism that might weaken the government.

Nevertheless, authoritative observers saw a wide split between the British and French positions.

After three hours of continuous marching, only half of the army had passed the emperor. In the march were thousands of drummers and

Some chiefs were accompanied by their own drum and bugle corps, blasting out martial music. One eunuch chief was disgraced when his mule bolted in front of the emperor and finally dismounted his rider on his head in the field.

Tuxedo-Clad Officer.

One chief, wearing a wartime French helmet, rode at the head of a mere handful of youngsters. The chief adjutant of the Dejazmach Machacha, wearing a well-tailored tuxedo girdled with a cartridge belt, rode gallantly past the emperor on a racing donkey.

Telegrams from the various fronts today indicated only minor activities. An Italian plane reportedly bombed the small Mohammedan village of Amba Perkata, south of the Setit river, in Wolka province.

It was reported from Dolo, on the Kenya-Italian Somali border, that an Italian spy had been arrested. Allegedly he said he was a deserter, and that his companion had been eaten by a crocodile in the Juba river.

Official reports from Djibouti, French Somaliland, said a ship had passed there carrying 350 dismantled planes to Mogadiscio, Italian Somaliland.

A member of the royal household told the United Press the Empress Menen visited the front for the "north country." Mule trains reportedly are in readiness for the empress' journey. Many servants already have been sent through a

The emperor was expected to leave for the south soon, probably to meet Tecla Hawariat, minister to France and delegate to the League, who is returning to Ethiopia to take command of the southern armies. The Negus probably will not be absent from the capital for more than a few days.

7 MILLION CARTRIDGES EN ROUTE TO HAILE BERBERA. British Somaliland, Oct. 17.—(UP)—More than 7,000,000 rifle cartridges, mostly of Belgian manufacture, have been unloaded here this week and are in transit to the Ethiopian southern armies, shipping men said tonight.

DUCE WON'T BOMB CITIES NOT AMMUNITION CENTERS

ROME (Friday), Oct. 18.—(AP)—The Ethiopian cities of Addis Ababa and Direwada will not be bombed by Italian airplanes as long as they do not become bases for concentration of troops and war materials, the government announced today.

The statement was in response to requests by representatives of a number of countries, including the United States, which have diplomatic headquarters or other interests in these cities.

OGADEN INVASION HALTED BY RAINS

OGADEN (Friday), Oct. 18.—(UP)—Advance of General

Natives To Wage Guerilla Warfare Against Italians at Waterholes

50,000 New Mauser Rifles Distributed to Ethiopian Troops By Didjasmach Nasihu, Governor of Harar Province; Duce's Airplanes Feared.

By LAURENCE STALLINGS.

HARAR, Ethiopia, Oct. 17.—As Mussolini's modern legions advance from Italian Somaliland, penetrating southern Ethiopia on a line extending from the Webbe Shiheli river on the west to the border of British Somaliland on the east, it is apparent that the Ethiopians' strategy is to put up a desperate fight at every important waterhole in Ogaden and Harar provinces.

When the Italians reach the Ogaden plateau, they will find every waterhole guarded by guerrilla troops, deployed in the surrounding hills and bush country.

In the last few days Didjasmach Nasihu, governor of Harar and commander of the Ethiopian forces in this sector, has distributed 50,000 new Mauser rifles to the hill warriors who will guard the waterholes. The natives have also received three days' supply of ammunition, of English make, the hill warriors refused to permit any "foreign" (foreigner) to continue his journey in their midst.

The whole countryside firmly believes the Ethiopian armies are winning in the south, whereas their military tactics reveal extreme caution, with reserves still streaming southward.

The Ethiopians fear most the Italians' advantage in attacking from the air and in being able to observe the movements of native troops. The Ethiopian strategists are disappointed at their inability to make surprise attacks, because the Italian air scouts are completely aware of the disposition of the principal Ethiopian forces.

With small bands of guerrilla fighters in the bush country it is, of course, a different matter, but these will not count for much in stopping the onrush of the Italian war machine.

The Ethiopian leaders also show uneasiness in expressing the belief that the invaders may make strategic efforts to cause defections among the primitive Galla tribes in the south, who stand most in fear of airplanes.

Harar's fear of an air attack has caused most of the populace to move out to the safety of neighboring hillsides, but not all the women of the town have fled. Many women are taking up arms and finding places on trucks moving to the southern front, where they expect to join their husbands. Thus they show their expectancy of a long conflict.

The official censors now forbid the use of cameras anywhere in the Harar area. This correspondent obtained permission to take a mule ride to a nearby mountain, but the native families camping beside the hill springs refused to permit any "foreign" (foreigner) to continue his journey in their midst.

Rodolpho Graziani's forces into Ogaden province, Ethiopia, with Jijiga, Harar and Direwada on the Djibouti-Addis Ababa railway as their objectives, will be delayed at least a week because of heavy rains, it was announced tonight.

NEUTRALITY VIOLATIONS PROSECUTIONS BEGIN

Envoy To Direct Cases Against Traders With Chaco Belligerents.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The federal government instituted a surprise action today leading to possible criminal prosecution of several arms and airplane corporations for alleged violation of the 1934 arms embargo against Bolivia and Paraguay.

The action came to light in federal court when Martin Conboy, former United States attorney, filed a commission from the Department of Justice designating him special assistant attorney-general to prosecute cases arising from the situation.

Listed as alleged violators of the embargo are:

Hugh I. Wells, Wayne D. Cannon, the Curtiss-Wright Export Corporation, the Curtiss-Wright Airplane Company, the Wright Aeronautical Corporation, the Curtiss Aeroplane and Motor Company, the Curtiss-Wright Corporation, Colt Patent Fire Arms Manufacturing Company, American Armament Corporation, Ferro Company, Inc., Clarence W. Webster and "others unknown."

Expressed surprise were voiced at the offices of Curtiss-Wright and American Armament when the information was given.

Some surprise also was given following his resignation as United States attorney for the southern district of New York, went to South America under commission of the President to investigate shipment of American airplanes to neutral zones but suspected of being consigned to one or the other of the belligerents in the since-ended Chaco War.

Since his return, Conboy has occupied quarters in the federal building but has made no comment upon his investigation. It was indicated that early grand jury action would be taken.

Hugh I. Wells, one of the individuals named as liable to prosecution, was president of the Pan-American Airways-Tampico Air Line, which secured permission March 29 to fly four Curtiss-Wright planes to Ayacucho, Peru, then application was made to permit the planes to be exported to the commerce department held up the necessary permit pending an investigation by the state department.

The state department, in announcing it had no objection to the permit being granted, issued a statement reciting that the air line had informed it the planes were to be used to make aerial surveys with a view to establishment of a commercial air line.

DAILY CHECK MADE ON BANK BUSINESS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—A daily check of financial transactions between United States banks and Italy and Ethiopia was reported tonight to have been instituted by the New York Federal Reserve Bank, fiscal agent for the treasury.

Information concerning possible violations of President Roosevelt's arms embargo was said to be the objective of the government.

Administration officials declined comment on the reports. But it was understood the daily check-up embraced all member banks of the reserve system.

Informed financial observers said that the vast majority of foreign exchange transactions clear through a handful of New York banks. It was recalled that the treasury's authority over such transactions virtually was absolute, though it has sought to make the flow of credit, jammed by the 1933 banking crisis, as smooth as possible.

ITALIANS WILL USE NEW MARCONI WAVE

Invention Designed to Stop Engines of Enemy Planes in Mid-air.

GENOA, Italy, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Guglielmo Marconi, distinguished Italian inventor, and his micro-wave, which he believes will be a new and effective weapon in the war, will soon be on the African front.

The inventor of the wireless arrived today from Brazil and announced he would confer with Premier Mussolini immediately about a military assignment in Eritrea.

He is reported to have carried on experiments with the short wave radio beams designed to stop the engines of enemy airplanes in flight.

These experiments have been surrounded with deepest secrecy because of their military significance. But as long ago as the summer of 1933, Marconi let the world know his micro-wave could be made into a valuable implement of warfare.

with reserves still streaming southward.

Governor of Del Chaco, Argentina, Here, Talks of Girls and Cotton

By RALPH MCGILL.

Said Dr. Jose C. Castells, Governor of Del Chaco territory in the republic of Argentina, in Atlanta yesterday:

"Your girls are the prettiest in the world." (Which is a diplomatic statement but dangerous one if it gets back to Del Chaco. Where the girls are pretty.)

"We are not competing with anyone in the production of cotton but we are trying to develop it as one of our national assets."

"We and Finland are the only nations which have paid our national debts."

"My territory produces 95 per cent of all the Argentine cotton. Last year we produced 300,000 bales."

"The depression? Del Chaco had its greatest boom during the depression and the Argentine was not hurt as other countries."

Here to Study Cotton.

The amiable young man had more to say. He is in the south to study cotton and the methods of farming. He left yesterday on a tour of the smaller cities and towns of Georgia, there to study farms and the production of cotton.

There has been much written about the economic chance of the Argentine to force ahead in the production of cotton now the United States has reduced acreage and the amount of cotton in the number of bales.

"We increased the acreage 30 per cent this year," he said, "and that will mean a 30 per cent increase in the number of bales. Next year we will again increase."

It was cotton which had the Governor's territory in the boom state all during the depression. It is a bit difficult to believe but nevertheless the territory, or state, of Del Chaco gave strong support to the "buy nothing" idea.

Key Products Banned.

The economic committee approved the following list of key products which are largely under control of League members and upon which an embargo to Italy immediately could be placed:

Chromium, iron ore, scrap iron, manganese, manganese ore, ferro alloys; tin and tin ore, tungsten, vanadium, aluminum and bauxite.

A second list, not yet approved, was made up of products not controlled mainly by league states. It included:

Pig iron, steel rolling mills products, iron and steel structures, coal, copper, petroleum and cotton.

In the case of coal, copper, oil and cotton, the committee needs to know more about the attitude of non-member states. They want to ascertain whether Italy will be able to get these materials from, for instance, the United States and Germany.

U. S. SAFE FROM WAR, GEORGE ASSERTS HERE

U. S. Senator Is Speaker at Meeting of National District Postmasters.

America's temper is adjusted to an even point in the problem of war and it is safe to say that this country will never again send soldiers to fight in foreign wars, United States Senator Walter F. George told members of the National League of District Postmasters in convention at the Ansley hotel yesterday.

"I think it ought to be a source of gratification that we are at peace in this country when there are wars and rumors of wars elsewhere," Senator George said. "We will remain at peace with the rest of mankind."

Senator George's speech featured the morning session of the postmasters' convention which will wind up today. Last night members attended a banquet at which Smith W. Purdum, assistant postmaster-general, was the guest speaker. Mr. Purdum spoke of problems of the postmasters and suggested policies for the improvement of the postal service.

The election of officers and selection of the next convention city will feature the closing sessions of the convention this morning. The delegates scattered to their homes over the country this afternoon and tonight.

James W. Cole, inspector in charge of the Atlanta department, spoke at yesterday afternoon's session, outlining to the postmasters improvements that his section of the department finds needed at times and praising the postmasters as a whole for the high percentage of efficiency that the inspectors have encountered in their ceaseless search for weaknesses.

Mr. Cole pointed out the many indications of increasing business and said:

"Fortunately, the postal service is prepared to handle the increased volume of mail which is following quickened industrial activities. It has the capacity to handle a much larger volume with negligible increase in manpower or mechanical facilities."

The Argentine cotton staple is a bit longer than the staple produced in America. But the Governor insists Argentina is going ahead with its own program and not attempting to directly match or surpass any other program.

Steak, Nickel a Pound.

As for the meat prices, which are sky-rocketing in America because of the drought of last year and a shortage of beef and pork, the Governor of Del Chaco declared that good porterhouse steak was five cents the pound at the market in Del Chaco.

Altogether he made his state in the famous South American republic seem very, very attractive, which is the duty of governors.

As for the League of Nations and the sanctions against Ethiopia, he grinned and said: "We belong to the League. We will obey the League."

He was most anxious, before leaving, that his state of Del Chaco not be confused with the forest of Chaco where Bolivia and Paraguay were at war. And that Argentina will not be confused with the revolution belt in the South and Central American countries. "We have no revolutions," he said.

"Argentina is booming. We are paying our debts in America because of the depression, which affected us very little, very rapidly."

After quoting prices on the fare to the Argentine and on the cost of a study of Georgia and her cotton farming.

TOO MANY MEN FOR HONEYMOON

Husband Wanted To Take Friend; Wife Took Memories.

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 17.—(AP)—A husband and wife—principals in a divorce action—wrote to court records today a story of their stormy honeymoon to Florida, in which the bride was described as "bragging about the men she knew" and the husband admitted to take his best man along on the wedding trip.

The testimony was presented in chancery court by Mrs. Edith June Sallade, who asks the divorce, and Willey Sallade, former chauffeur of Pierre S. du Pont.

Identified as having been written by Sallade, and addressed to du Pont with the salutation "Dear Daddy," and signed "Always yours, affectionately, Willey" featured the case before Advisory Master in Chancery William J. Kraft.

Tears came to Sallade's eyes as his 47-year-old wife related that when he wrote the letter, and asked her to mail it, she opened it and read it instead. She wanted to find out, she said, about the title to a property in Haddonfield, which, she testified, was a present from du Pont.

The title to this property, Sallade had testified, was one of the major points of contention between himself and his wife. She was always "nagging me to see Mr. du Pont about the title of the house in Haddonfield," he related, explaining that he "didn't feel like talking to him about it because it was a trust fund fixed by him and I had nothing to do about it."

This trust fund, he disclosed, gives him an income at present of about $17,000 yearly.

The divorce action nearly came to a sudden end late in the day when Sallade said he was willing to take his wife back, "if she would be a true wife." But he changed his mind almost immediately.

Sallade admitted a series of arguments began over his desire to take the best man, whom he identified only as "Judge Mays," along on the honeymoon. His bride, however, he added, "while away the time bragging about the men she knew."

AT ATLANTA'S THEATERS

'The Girl Friend' Comes
Today to Rialto Screen
Columbia Pictures' snappy musical comedy, "The Girl Friend," with Ann Southern, Jack Haley and Roger Pryor triply starred, opens at the Rialto theater today for a week's engagement, preceded by enthusiastic reviews and considerable acclaim as something really exceptional for its type of entertainment.

It is apparent that any picture which writes a musical satire on Napoleon must have some peculiarly delightful and luring music, while the story itself is ample assurance that there is lots of comedy. To say nothing of a real romance or two to take care of the sentimental portion of the audience.

It is all about a penniless actor who writes a musical satire on Napoleon which gets confused, in a producer's office, with a serious tragedy on the Little Corsican. The result, when the desperate and hungry actor finds his two young friends pose as the producer and go to the Boston home of the equally young and attractive playwright of the tragedy, is confusion in a situation that only becomes worse when love enters into the plot.

It is exceptionally clever amusement which should win high acclaim from patrons of the renovated and recently modernized Rialto theater. And Manager Murray has another group of those short subjects he selects with unfailing good judgment to round out his program for the week.

Shirley Temple Moves
'Curly Top' to Georgia
Shirley Temple in her latest picture, "Curly Top," is being held over at the Georgia theater for one week, starting today, after playing a week at the Paramount.

Beyond all comparison "Curly Top" is Shirley Temple's greatest picture. It has five new songs, all with the magical melody touch of Ray Henderson; a number of intriguing new Jack Donohue dance routines, including the sensational rope-skipping dance episode; a sterling supporting cast; and a corking romantic story line.

Against the colorful background that Fox has provided, "Curly Top" tells the fascinating story of the curly-headed waif who brings happiness and romance to the millionaire stepfather who befriends her.

From the opening scenes in the orphanage where Shirley and her pets, a pony and a duck, are perpetually getting into mischief, the picture quickly flashes to the Southampton house of John Bole, the millionaire who takes the little girl away from the stern domination of the orphanage.

Shirley's two songs, "When I Grow Up" and "Animal Crackers in My Soup," are the high spots of the song program.

'Barbary Coast' to Play
At Grand Opening Today
Flaming color, boisterous clamor and a still notorious and lawless colony which sprang into being in the early days of the California gold rush provide the setting for "Barbary Coast," which starts today at Loew's Grand theater. This is the first film Miriam Hopkins and Joel McCrea have made under their new contract with Samuel Goldwyn. They appear with Edward G. Robinson as the stars of the film, directed by Howard Hawks, with Frank Craven, Brian Donlevy, Clyde Cook and J. M. Kerrigan in supporting roles.

"Barbary Coast" is the story of Mary Rutledge, who travels across the continent in the days of the covered wagon to find the man she loves, who has come to California as a gold miner. When Mary arrives, she learns her fiancé has been killed. Colonel Cobb, San Francisco's first newspaper editor, befriends her, offering to aid her retracing her steps. Mary is resolved to find him.

At the Bella Donna, a notorious gambling resort, she meets Louis Chamalis, his owner, and perhaps the most powerful and ruthless man in San Francisco. Mary proposes to begin work in his establishment, which Louis readily approves. Then Mary undergoes a striking transformation. From the happy, charming girl she has been she suddenly changes to a woman known as Swan, diamond bedecked, hard and brittle. She presides at one of Louis' gambling tables, and the miners flock to her table, hoping for her favors.

During a visit to the gold fields, Mary meets Jim Carmichael, an easterner who has come to California and struck it rich. Mary and Jim are instantly attracted to each other, and this experience makes Mary realize the sordidness of her career as Swan.

LOUISIANA CANDIDATE HITS LONG'S OLD LAWS

Gubernatorial Aspirant Calls for Repudiation of State's Dictatorship.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Without calling the name of the late Senator Huey P. Long, who erected the Louisiana dictatorship, Representative Cleveland Dear, of the eighth district, anti-Long candidate for governor in the January 1 democratic primary, tonight called for its repeal in the opening speech of his campaign over the radio here.

Dear also asked for peace and cooperation with the national administration in order to bring into Louisiana federal millions blocked by Long's anti-Roosevelt spite laws and promised that his first act, if elected, would be to have an old age pension law enacted in conformity with the federal pension statute.

As a result of the laws passed by the machine legislature which carried out the will of Long, Mr. Dear said that local government had been destroyed and that business had been retarded in Louisiana, that "business and property owners in Louisiana are living under a direct threat of punishment and retaliation should they actively oppose the state administration" and that "prominent businessmen are unable to speak their views for fear of the lash."

Mr. Dear said the businessmen would "put an end to this intolerable condition at the coming election" and added that he "understood" all candidates would have representation at the polls in spite of the action of the democratic central committee, headed by Governor O. K. Allen, which refused to grant such a request under a Long law which authorizes the state-controlled boards of elections super-

WILLARD POOL DIES AT HOME IN JASPER

Former Widely-Known Atlantan Has Heart Attack;
Son Was Grid Star.

Willard H. Pool, 54, former resident of Atlanta and prominent businessman and civic leader of Jasper, died suddenly there of a heart ailment yesterday. He was here Wednesday on business and at that time appeared to be in good health.

Born at Milan, Kan., on October 30, 1880, Mr. Pool, when a young man moved to Atlanta. Though admitted to the bar here in June, 1914, he never practiced. He was a large real estate owner in Jasper. Interested in cattle, Mr. Pool had 200 head of cattle on a ranch there. In addition to being active in civic work, he was prominent in the Methodist church, of which he was a steward.

Funeral services will be held in Jasper. Detailed arrangements will be announced later.

112 KILLED, 407 HURT IN SOVIET EARTHQUAKE

STALIN-ABAD, U. S. S. R., Oct. 17.—(UP)—At least 112 persons were killed and 407 injured today in the Tbilisi district of Tadzhikistan by the second earthquake to strike there within a week.

Airplanes from Stalin-Bad tonight rushed food and clothing to the quake victims.

A government commission announced plans to transfer the inhabitants of the stricken mountain villages to the valleys.

U. S. CONTROL OF STATE SEEN FOR LOUISIANA

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.—(UP)—Mayor T. Semmes Walmesley, of New Orleans, bitter foe of the assassinated Senator Huey P. Long, warned tonight that Louisiana may be forced to invoke its "constitutional privilege" for a provisional government to be set up by the President of the United States.

Walmesley, addressing attorneys of the eighth federal judicial district, directed a vicious tirade at the Louisiana dictatorship and asserted that "we expect to set ourselves free at the January elections, but if we fail we must resort to other methods."

He cited two possible solutions.

"The first," Walmesley said, "would be provisional federal government guaranteeing the citizens of Louisiana the constitutional rights of freedom and liberty."

"The other is an amended code for the United States district court giving it priority over state courts in the jurisdiction of suits and the deprivation of rights or privileges."

COUNCIL POLICE BOARD TO FACE JURORS TODAY

Presentments Expected to Contain Criticism of County To Be Published.

The police committee of city council will be called before the grand jury police probe committee this morning, it was announced yesterday on the eve of the expected publication of special presentments which, it is believed, will contain criticism of the administration of county affairs by the county commission.

H. G. King, chairman of the committee investigating the county board, is prepared to report the findings of his group to the grand jury as a whole today at its regular meeting, and if the paper is adopted, it probably will be made public in the form of special presentments.

It was understood that the King committee report will recommend economy in government of Fulton county. Pharr asks tax cut.

Walter S. Pharr, foreman of the September-October grand jury, yesterday wrote a letter to the five county commissioners asking for a reduction of the tax rate in 1936 and proposing to the county board that it adopt a policy of "good service, good salaries and reduction of the tax rate." The commissioners made no comment.

Councilman G. Dan Bridges, chairman of the council police committee, and Councilman Howard Haire, Alderman Farris A. Mitchell, Councilman Alvin L. Richards, and George B. Lyle will confer with the committee headed by J. G. Barrow at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

It was understood that the committee will recommend certain changes to the police committee and that the future investigation of the police department probably will be guided by the election of Chairman Bridges and his associates.

Ex-Councilman Quizzed.
The police probe group questioned two former councilmen yesterday, Parke Rusk and Harry York, and a number of other witnesses in tracing a "lead" which produced nothing. Deputy Sheriff Gordon Hare and others were among those questioned.

Many leads or tips have been followed by Barrow and his men from information furnished by citizens in answer to Barrow's request for facts concerning protection given bootleggers and lottery operators by city police. Some of the information given was understood to have been proved true but much of it was useless to the committee, it was said.

It was considered possible that indictments will result from the investigation conducted by Barrow and Jurors O. L. Kennedy and J. T. Bray. Information of irregularities in the city police department has been turned over to the solicitor-general, John A. Boykin, and charges will be preferred against offenders if it is decided that the offenses have been criminal.

Many Witnesses Interviewed.
Since the probe began, nearly half a hundred witnesses have been interviewed by the Barrow committee. High police officials and well-known "underworld characters" were among the number. On the promise of immunity from punishment given by Barrow, it was believed that much "inside" was supplied the jurymen of alleged collusion between police and lawbreakers.

Barrow's conference Monday with the council police committee is expected to be a climatic point in the probe, although the report of the committee will not be submitted to the grand jury until the final sessions of the jury.

Jury Trend Indicated.
Indication of the trend the committee headed by King is taking was given last week by Commissioner Edwin F. Johnson, leader of the majority faction, who promised in behalf of himself and Chairman Charles R. Adams and Ed L. Almond, to give a rigidly economical administration henceforth. His promise of economy included reduction in the operating expense of Fulton county and also the wiping out of a $325,000 deficit within three years.

Foreman Pharr asked the five commissioners to reduce the tax rate next year and for the following two years that the majority faction of Adams, Johnson and Almond hold office. Pharr, in addition to the foremanship of the jury, is chairman of the special committee investigating the tax situation of Fulton.

Letter from Pharr.
His letter follows:
"Gentlemen:
"Your motto should be, 'Give good service, pay good salaries and at the same time reduce our taxes.' We understand that you have already fixed our tax rate for 1935, the same as it was for 1934, and you, Dr. Adams, Edwin Johnson and Ed Almond, will serve as county commissioners for the years of 1936, 1937 and 1938."

Now we ask that you adopt the above mentioned motto as your motto.

Painful Piles
Go Quick—No Cutting—No Salves
If you think an operation is always the only way to escape the misery of torturing piles, it's because you haven't heard of HEM-ROID, the harmless internal medicine discovered by a western physician.

After years of study Dr. J. S. Leonard was convinced that the cause of Piles was internal—bad circulation of blood in the lower bowel—the hemorrhoidal veins filled with stagnant blood—and that the right and safe way to get freedom from Pile agony was to remove the cause with an internal medicine. Immediately the doctor set to work to find the remedy. He succeeded and called his prescription HEM-ROID.

Pile sufferers everywhere are hearteningly by Dr. Leonard's discovery, as they doubt or delay longer when Jacobs Drug Store and all druggists say, "No matter what kind of Piles you have, one bottle of HEM-ROID tablets will show you the safe clean way to get rid of your pile misery or money back."—(adv.)

CRACK THEM.
This actually happened in a recent major tournament: The dealer was a woman who has the misfortune to be rather deaf. She loudly bid "one heart" and when all the other players passed she promptly doubled, in the same stentorian tones. Whereupon her partner turned to the opponent at the left and said, hastily: "You'd better pass in a hurry or she'll redouble herself into game."

Now, whatever else may be said for her, she demonstrated one quality which warns the cockles of my heart. She wasn't going to pass up any chances for a juicy penalty double in which she differed from the last majority of players. For some strange reason this point eludes them, particularly doubles of low level contracts which usually produce the biggest penalties. They miss thousands of easily won points by driving ahead with no trump and suit bids of their own when a snappy double would mean big profits, not to mention the transfer of the headaches from their own to the opponents' side of the table.

Yet the whole system of contract bidding is founded on penalty doubles. Bridge is a game of points and sound doubles pile up the points faster and in larger quantities than any other source of supply. What does the honor trick table—the first point to be learned in bidding—offer? The defensive value of high cards. What does an opening bid reveal? The definite possession of at least 2-1-2 defensive tricks. The moment such a bid is overcalled the first thought of the opener's partner is, or should be, "Can I now insert a profitable double, knowing my partner's minimum strength?" The game-going possibilities of the partnership are the secondary, not the first, considerations.

Judge Barnes ordered her remanded to immigration officials. She was ordered deported to Rumania because of two convictions on charges of operating disorderly houses in Indiana.

DETROIT GAS COMPANY WILL SHARE PROFITS
DETROIT, Oct. 17.—(P)—The Detroit City Gas Company has agreed to a union profit-sharing plan, the city council was informed today, under which excess earnings will be returned annually to consumers.

Fisher explained the plan would allow the company a base annual earning of $3,550,000, with revenue above this sum to be split between consumers and stockholders, on a 50-50 basis for the first additional $550,000, and thereafter on the basis of 75 per cent to consumers and 25 per cent to stockholders.

Pattern 5462.

This knitted square—a simple exercise in knitting, one that even a beginner can master—is excellent pick-up work. Before you know it, you'll find the squares just rolling off your needles. Though made of string they are lacy and soft and so are quite the thing for an in-between cloth with matching scarfs, a tea cloth, a cushion, a bedspread, a buffet set to mention but a few uses. The plain knitting contrasts with the open lacy stitch.

In pattern 5462 you will find complete instructions for making the square shown; an illustration of it and of the stitches needed; material requirements.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to Household Arts Dept., The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

ANNOUNCING!

AMERICA SPEAKS

The National Weekly Poll of Public Opinion

Authoritative, Impartial, Scientific

THE CONSTITUTION takes pride in announcing the weekly appearance, beginning next Sunday, of AMERICA SPEAKS. This National Weekly Poll of Public Opinion is sponsored by the American Institute of Public Opinion and is an authoritative, non-partisan, fact-finding project intended to further the cause of representative government in the United States.

Each week AMERICA SPEAKS, the National Weekly Poll of Public Opinion, as the result of personal interviews and ballots sent into every state and to persons in all walks of life, will make known the voice of the nation on some major issue of the day.

Next Sunday the question answered by the voters of the United States will be whether government expenditures for relief and recovery are too high or too low. Another week the result will show whether President Roosevelt is gaining or losing in popular strength. Again, the people will make known their wishes about curbing the power of the Supreme Court, about paying the bonus, about the procedure to be followed before war is declared, or about government regulation of business and industry.

In many instances, because of previous nation-wide polls conducted on the same question during the past two years, it will be possible to show interesting and significant trends in public opinion over a period of many months.

AMERICA SPEAKS is not an effort to further the cause of one politician or of one party. Republican, Democratic, and Independent newspapers have united to underwrite the huge cost of these weekly polls and to make this venture into the realm of political science a workable reality.

AMERICA SPEAKS is a scientifically accurate and strictly impartial means of making the voice of all the people articulate.

The Constitution believes that AMERICA SPEAKS, the National Weekly Poll of Public Opinion, represents a major step in the long march of the people of a free nation toward a flexible, responsible, and practical method of ruling themselves.

AMERICA SPEAKS will appear in The Constitution beginning next Sunday.

Papers which will publish the findings of the National Weekly Poll of Public Opinion:

UNIONISTS QUARREL OVER JURISDICTION

Beaten in First Battle, Lewis Seeks Greater Influence Sphere.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 17. (AP)—Undaunted by last night's drubbing, John L. Lewis and his industrial union allies renewed their fight today for American Federation of Labor adoption of their "one big union" plan for each big mass production industry.

Hours of convention oratory even more bitter and heated than that preceding last night's victory of the craft unionists followed Lewis' demand that the craftsmen stay out of the western metal mines, mills and smelters.

Yesterday's issue was one of principle. Today's was one of practice. The chief of the United Mine Workers joined the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers in claiming that a number of craft unions had enrolled members in the Anaconda Copper Company's Montana plants that rightfully belonged to the metal miners' union.

Other developments today: The federation directed trade union members to stay out of next year's Olympic games in Berlin, urged the whole country to refrain from patriotic displays directed at Germany and "nazi goods and services," and pleaded for more money to help German trade union refugees.

A federal investigation of strike-breaking agencies was requested after Julius Hochman, of New York, said that "the lifting of the lid on these agencies would reveal a mass of crime that is poisoning American industrial life."

The convention ordered the executive council to investigate charges that the teachers' union had come under control of forces opposed to federation principles.

An investigation of the American Federation of Teachers was ordered by the American Federation of Labor in response to charges the teachers' organization had fallen under control of communist influences.

As an indication of the condition, the United States Department of Agriculture reported that as of October 1 the stocks of meat in cold storage declined to the smallest total on record.

On the side of expanding demand causing price increases, copper is cited by trade authorities. Prices have held at 9.25 cents a pound for domestic copper for the best part of two weeks as a result of sustained demand from consumers who have been buying the metal steadily since it touched a low of 8 cents after the NRA copper code was abandoned. The current price is the best in more than four years.

In the rayon yarn field, shipments have continued at an all-time high rate following spirited buying by the trade. Demand is the chief factor. It is said, because supply is limited only by the capacity of the industry. A higher price for raw silk, which at $2.15 a pound, is at the year's peak, is an aid to the synthetic competitor.

Another textile, wool, likewise has enjoyed a heavy demand with consumption at the best levels since the war. In the cotton textile section, manufacturers have been kept busy with orders inspired by consumer buying, and raw cotton on the basis of that situation and reports on the African war has been selling around the highest point since the federal government proclaimed its loan-subsidy plan for producers.

Affected directly by war news, scrap steel exports have been climbing, hampered only by increased freight insurance rates. The average price, as compiled by the Associated Press, stands at $12.67 a ton compared with the 1935 high of $12.93 and a 1934 high of $13, which was maintained only briefly.

times as many projects as can be handled immediately.

Projects not selected at first will be handled as soon as additional funds have been made available to the Georgia WPA. Mr. MacDougal added. The ratio of three to one was determined roughly because certain shares of $2,514,705 program will be paid by the local communities in which the projects are developed.

Outstanding in the list of projects approved for Fulton county is the Juvenile Detention Home, for which the WPA is to pay $67,800 and the county $27,380 in the form of materials.

Conferees Probable.

Which of the Fulton county projects will be started under the deficiency in funds will be determined probably in a conference between WPA and Fulton county officials.

Selection of the projects will be determined by needs for employment. Projects will be started, it is said, that will provide labor for persons in trades where the percentage of idleness is heaviest. COMMUNISTS TO GET

GOTHAM RELIEF JOBS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Victor Ridder, who stepped into the shoes vacated by General Hugh S. Johnson as director of Gotham's WPA, declared tonight that persons who protest against his policy of not barring communists from relief "would be wasting their time."

Declaring that he would not tolerate agitation within the ranks, Ridder had said that he would not drop professed communists from pay rolls because of their beliefs.

"Anybody who doesn't like my attitude can talk President Roosevelt or Harry L. Hopkins. They are the only men who can remove me," he said.

William H. Lange, state director of the national re-employment service, said that there were 800 jobs paying from $215 to $217 a month which were going begging, because they called for highly skilled engineers and supervisors on construction projects.

Few Auto Accidents in City for Two Days

Assistant Police Chief Sees
Effect of Constitution's
Safe Driving Campaign.

Atlanta auto drivers are becoming safety minded if the police accident reports of the past two days may be taken as a criterion.

In those two days, Wednesday and Thursday, but 14 reports were entered on the records. In only one case was anybody hurt at all seriously.

J. D. Ehridge, a motorcycle officer, was the single victim. He suffered a fractured left hand and lacerations, then knocked from his motorcycle Wednesday night on Peachtree avenue, near the railroad crossing, by a hit-run truck driver.

Nine of the 14 accidents occurred Wednesday. In the other eight cases, seven persons were bruised and one driver, a woman, was cited for driving while intoxicated.

But one person was injured Thursday. He was a negro motorcyclist released from Grady hospital after treatment for bruises. The other five accidents involved autos. One driver, a negro, was arrested for drunkenness.

Assistant Police Chief J. H. Holloman expressed gratification at the record, declaring the scarcity of accidents is due in some measure to the constitution's safe driving campaign. He hastened to point out, however, that over a given period of time the bulk of serious accidents will be found to have occurred outside the city limits.

"Atlanta's drive safely as a rule," he said, "although that number of accidents in two consecutive days in the fall of the year is unusually low."

long trench that would be needed to hold the 304 dead if we like? Whatever our official opinion may be, we as individuals, it is a duty to our neighbor to remember when we press the throttle that dead lives are in every engine."

Charles Puleston has been named chairman of the safety council at Emory University, directing the campaign being waged for safe driving on the Emory campus.

In addition to studying driving conditions on the campus and making what recommendations, the Emory Safety Council will publish each week in the Emory Herald, student publication, a list of students who have been reported for reckless driving.

For second offenders, a letter will be sent the student's parents and for the third offense he will be forbidden the privilege of driving on the campus.

Letter by G. E. Swift, president of Swift & Company, has been sent to every member of the organization out of the United States, pointing out the great increase in motor deaths and the heavy loss sustained by the families of employees of that company alone through injury to or death of the driver.

Co-operation Pledged.

J. H. Crumley, sales manager for Swift in the Atlanta territory, has pledged to the Emory Safety Council and pledges full co-operation for the entire organization in the drive for safety.

Mr. Swift said that accidents are not always the fault of the motorist and urges pedestrians to obey traffic rules and extend the same courtesy to the drivers of automobiles they expect in return.

E. G. Hitt, president of Associated Mutuals, Inc., with offices in the Magnolia Street building, sends 50 signed pledges to the organization, listing it among the 100 per cent, while dozens of individual motorists called at The Constitution office yesterday to sign the Safe Driving pledge in person.

A copy of this pledge is published elsewhere in this edition of The Constitution. It is not to be signed so at once and mail enclosing stamped, addressed envelope for return, to the Safety Council, care of The Constitution, 100 Peachtree street, Atlanta, Ga.

The fast growing volunteer army sworn to do all in its power to sweep the spectre of death off the highways and streets of Georgia and Atlanta.

EDUCATE JUDGES, POLICE, ROAD ENGINEER URGES

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Education of traffic officials—lawmakers, judges, engineers and police—was urged today by Robert L. Morrison, department of highway engineering, University of Michigan, before the National Safety Congress.

"State, county and city governments are shirking an important part of their responsibility as long they fail to provide adequate training for their traffic officials," Morrison declared.

Morrison urged the holding of traffic schools in every city for policemen.

Police Judge Harry H. Porter, of Evanston, Ill., recommended deposit of the driver's license in a safe or cash bail to eliminate "fixing."

Use of the newspaper editorial to instruct the public in proper safety methods was urged by Tom Wallace, editor of the Louisville Times, in an address before the publications section of the congress.

Wallace said the editorial was the closest thing to conversation in industry and declared the editorial "is an influence on opinion."

SEE BIGGEST SHOW

Young and Old Thrill Alike at Stunts, Spectacle and Laugh at Clowns.

Seven or 70, all 26,000 were yelling, peanut-pitching kids at the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Combined Circus here today.

Under the great tent housing seven rings, the hippodrome track and the aerial maze, 13,000 persons last night thrilled at the trapeze artists, acrobats, camels and Touroze from the Sahara, fine Arabian race horses and such star performers as the great Wallendens, Mademoiselle Gillette and the 130 clowns who pulled 1,500 games.

An equal number was present yesterday afternoon, it was said.

Features of last night's performance were Mademoiselle Gillette, who nipped her swing as she jumped from the top of the tent and fell 60 feet before her supporting cords caught her; the great Wallendens, who rode bicycles on a wire 50 feet high, and the hilarious clown in ring seven who leaped over a horse into the basket of a peanut vendor.

The show opened with a spectacular parade, the Durban, a reproduction of the spectacle at Delhi, India, with all its pomp and circumstance, including elephants, camels and silks and satins, flashing jewels and prancing stallions.

Violence Threatens in Kentucky Fields

National Guard Is Ordered
Into Four Strife-Torn Counties.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 17.—(AP)—The threat of violence hung over Kentucky coal fields tonight as picketing was reported in three counties. At the same time tension gripped a fourth county—Rowan.

Pickets in the Middleboro field, when J. E. Hendren, superintendent of the Premier Coal Company, clashed with 10 pickets.

Governor Laffoon announced this morning he had ordered troops to Butler, Bell and Whitley counties, as well as the detachment to Rowan county.

The five guardsmen assigned to Whitley county, after making an inspection, withdrew without reporting their findings. Guardsmen had not arrived at Bell county late in the day and at both Pineville and Middleboro it was said none had been requested.

Word came from the Tennessee coal mine district an attempt would be made to deliver from jail 19 pickets arrested in Middleboro yesterday.

In Butler county, where a condition described as "crucial" prompted County Judge John R. Phelps and members of the county board, five guardsmen were on duty.

MINERS IN TENNESSEE WILL GO BACK TO PITTS

ATKINS, Tenn., Oct. 17.—(AP)—After being on strike for about four weeks, approximately 2,000 miners in the southern Tennessee region are ready to go back underground tomorrow.

It was agreed the wage scale provided in the recently effected "Washington agreement" should go into effect immediately.

A statement issued jointly by operators and workers indicated no contract had been made but that negotiations would go forward after resumption of work.

extraordinary precautions was a report communists were planning disorders.

Political observers, however, expressed the opinion the increase of power granted Prince Von Starheim for Austria's military and police operation between Italy and Austria.

The vice chancellor's relations with Mussolini are intimate and the policy of Austria's foreign policy, has been supported by Italy.

The Jewish telegraph agency said the reorganization of the cabinet was interpreted as a favorable development for Austria's Jewish community.

Wheaton, Ill. The Italians also are using dum-dum bullets, said the missionary.

Dr. Hockman, who is on his way from his base at Jijiga to Addis Ababa to seek anti-Italian for chlorine gas and other medical supplies, said he had been told that the Ethiopians were still confident they could repel the invaders.

"I believe the Italians have been definitely checked on both north and south fronts," he said. "Their delay in attempting to make further advances is not due to strategic reasons but is compulsory. There is no doubt that Emperor Haile Selassie means business when he says his armies will do their utmost to drive the Italians from their African colonies."

Hockman said the morale of the Ethiopians remains high, despite the fact that thousands have developed surly during a long period of watchful waiting on short rations. He confirmed the stories that the Ethiopians are confounding the Italians in many sectors by using tribal guerrilla tactics.

Meanwhile, Dejdasmach Nasibu, governor of Harar and leader of the Ethiopian forces in this region, waits, ready to make a cat-like spring when General Amisano, commanding the southern Italian armies, pushes a spearhead toward the Jijiga-Harar sector. The Dejdasmach is powerless under the present straining contest between Italian munitions and the Ethiopian's fortitude.

DELICATE PROBLEMS FACED IN TEST OF AAA

government would lose millions in taxes imposed by a stream of injunction suits which began in June. The amendments provide that procedure for some cases would be different; could not recover unless they could prove they had absorbed the taxes instead of passing them on to the consumers or back to the farmers.

No Loss Proved.

If congress had been able to ratify, the government, while technically loser of the decision, would be in a somewhat similar position to its one in the government bond gold clause case, when the court held it had no right to demand the return of the bonds.

Some lawyers were uncertain whether the court could pass on the "ratification" in the Hoese Mills case. It was suggested another suit might be required. The Washburn-Crosby Company has asked the court to review a second case raising this issue.

An answer to the second question either way probably would be conclusive, in the opinion of most observers. Here again, however, some attorneys have suggested that the latitude taken by an adverse opinion would determine whether all benefits payments to farmers would be barred, or the government would merely be forced to find another means of raising some $200,000,000 annually to finance them.

OATH OF ALLEGIANCE RIDICULOUS—CADMAN

KIRKSVILLE, Mo., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, noted Brooklyn clergyman, told 1,000 teachers at a convention today that Masses and other law requiring teachers to take an oath of allegiance was "an insult to the teaching profession."

He declared those advocating the "oath of allegiance" to realize that teachers dedicate themselves to patriotic endeavor by training future citizens.

Bromley Osnam, president of Depauw University, Greencastle, Ind., termed the oath "ridiculous."

"We are all brothers whether we like it or not," he said, "and the sooner we develop a world-wide unity of nations the better."

SHUSHAN WILL UNFOLD DEFENSE PLANS TODAY

Government Rests Case Against Former Aid of the Late Huey Long.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Abraham L. Shushan, robust New Orleans notary merchant who ascended Louisiana's political ladder under the guiding hand of the late Huey P. Long, is scheduled to start unfolding his defense to charges he evaded more than $71,000 federal income taxes for the years 1929-1933, including in district court here tomorrow.

For nearly two weeks he has sat silently beside his attorney watching the government build its case against him.

He has heard witness after witness tell the jury of 11 white businessmen and a negro dentist, of huge cash, check and bond transactions which the prosecution contends involved income he failed to report in his tax returns. The government rested its case at 11 a. m. today after nine days devoted to testimony of more than 100 witnesses and the introduction of some 300 exhibits.

Climaxing the government's presentation was the testimony of Russell Welch, internal revenue agent actively engaged in investigating Shushan's income for the five-year period.

From prepared tabulations Welch told the jury the government's investigations showed the defendant actually evaded payment of $71,153.52 taxes on an alleged gross unreported income for the five years of $445,218.43.

The revenue agent testified that Shushan's tax payments for the period totaled $4,790.77, whereas the government claims he actually owed $73,944.13. He fixed his gross income for the five years at $907,413.86, as against $159,195.43 shown in the defendant's income returns.

Roosevelt Declares Government Should Prevent War Devastation

Function Is Not Merely To Clear Up Carnage, He Announces
Calling on Women, as Greatest Sufferers To Back Peace.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Classing war with other economic and social evils such as unemployment and crime, President Roosevelt tonight declared the function of modern government to be its prevention rather than merely gathering up the wreckage after the devastation.

"I have pledged myself to do my part in keeping America free of those entanglements that move us along the road to war," he made this declaration in a message from the U. S. S. Houston to the fifth annual forum of the American public opinion on the New York Herald Tribune.

F. D. R. Seeks Co-operation.
"I want to feel at all times that I have the sustaining influence of a healthy, sound, and above all, thoroughly American public opinion on the subject. My task and the task of all those others who are associated with me in the official life of the country can be made easier if the citizenship of the nation and particularly the women . . . seek the truth and a wise application of the truth."

The message was read to the women's conference by Mrs. Roosevelt, who presided. It had been planned that the President would deliver his message personally by radio but adequate facilities could not be arranged from his ship, which is in Central American waters.

Mr. Roosevelt placed foremost among the "challenging factors" the need for a more efficient government, "that failure of reason which permits and wages modern war" and held its prevention a prime function of government.

He termed the forum "an excellent reminder of the very important fact that education in its broader sense begins only after formal school education is finished" and said "there was never a time in the history of this country when an examination of the fundamental principles on the basis of which our public affairs are conducted was more important."

Women Greatest Sufferers.
"When our economic system fails to sustain an adequate standard of life," he continued, "it is the women who face the most poignant privation."

"A falling standard in the incomes of average Americans, the dragging of innocent children from homes into factories, the problems of delinquency that arise from social conditions, the destruction of workers' morale by unemployment, the effects of poverty and dependency in old age, widespread preventable diseases, unnecessary industrial warfare, and, most of all, that failure of reason which permits and wages modern war—all of these challenging factors in modern society throw upon the women of the nation a material and spiritual burden of the greatest significance."

Government Preventative.

"Government has become one of the most important instruments for the prevention and cure of these evils," he added. "Its concern at the moment is unabated."

"Government can be no more than the collective wisdom of its citizens. The duty of citizens is to increase this collective wisdom by common counsel, by the discovery and consideration of facts relating to the common life, and by the discouragement of those who for selfish ends or through careless speech distort facts and disseminate untruth."

"Constant vigilance is necessary in a nation like ours, to see that forces that make for discovery are discovered and discouraged."

Knox Stresses Free Press.
Freedom of the press was called more important to the nation as a whole than to the newspapers alone by Colonel Frank Knox, who spoke before the forum.

"Newspapers," said the Chicago publisher, "can and do survive under censorship and bureaucratic control, but public liberty languishes and dies."

"The maintenance of a free press touches the life and freedom of the farmer at his plow, the worker at his bench, the banker at his desk, as much as it does the editor at his office. The liberty of them all is endangered when this freedom is abridged or destroyed."

Colonel Knox, whose name has been mentioned in connection with speculation over the 1936 presidential nominee, called the modern newspaper "the most important of public utilities" and said it "must be administered with a high sense of obligation to the public."

Newspaper publishers, as a class, he said, would "go down, if go down they must, before a world-wide swing to personal dictatorships, with the torch of liberty still held aloft and burning."

Calling publicity the "dictator's deadliest foe," he said: "Not in Russia, Germany, Austria or Italy is there to be found anything that remotely approaches a free press. All newspapers are closely censored as to both news and editorial content, and, with the destruction of a free press in those countries, swiftly followed the like destruction of all other human rights."

TROOPS CALLED OUT
IN 3 KENTUCKY AREAS
FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Kentucky national guard troops have been assigned to duty in four counties, Governor Ruby Laffoon announced today.

Troops have been assigned as "observers," the Governor said, in Butler, Bell and Whitley counties, and another detachment has been sent to Rowan county for service during a labor controversy.

The sending of troops to Bell and Whitley counties, the Governor said, resulted from reported outbreaks, especially in the latter county, between working and non-working miners. In Bell county, the Governor said, a number of miners were mistreated and ducked in a creek.

Women recognize, he said, "that government was not instituted to serve merely as a cold public instrument to be called into use after irreparable damage has been done."

"Government has become one of the most important instruments for the prevention and cure of these evils," he added. "Its concern at the moment is unabated."

Mrs. Carroll Weds Albert Sidney Lewis

Of social interest in Georgia and Tennessee was the marriage yesterday of Mrs. William Howe Carroll and Albert Sidney Lewis, which was a quiet event taking place at the Peachtree Christian church. Dr. Robert Burns, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony at high noon in the presence of only members of the immediate families.

The bride, who is of the striking Italian type, was handsomely gowned in a chic Carnegie model of black wool with a short coat of Persian lamb. Her hat matched and her flowers were a shoulder bouquet of orchids.

Following the ceremony the bride and bridegroom were honored at an informal wedding breakfast, after which they left for their wedding trip to New Orleans and other points of interest on the Gulf coast. Upon their return to Atlanta they will reside at 200 Montgomery Ferry drive.

The bride is the former Miss Marjorie Beasley, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Holland Beasley, of Nashville, Tenn. Mr. Lewis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Thomas Lewis, of Atlanta, and is a member of the Kiwanis and the Capital City Clubs.

Miss Juanita Gresham Weds Mr. Mitchell Jr. at All Saints

MR. AND MRS. FRANK RADFORD MITCHELL JR.

Myriads of stately Easter lilies transformed the interior of All Saints Episcopal church into a scene of floral beauty for the nuptial ceremony of Miss Juanita Gresham and Frank Radford Mitchell Jr., last evening at 8:30 o'clock, the purity of the lilies contrasting effectively with the background of rich tropical foliage. An assemblage of fashionable society witnessed the service at which the Rev. Dr. W. W. Memminger officiated. James Ragan, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music while the guests were assembling.

At each end of alternating pews clusters of Easter lilies in shower effect were tied with bows of white satin ribbon. In the center of the long windows on either side of the church was a large crescent formed of white pompon chrysanthemums outlined by bouquets of Easter lilies. Rising from the center of the floral crescents were three-branched candelabra in which burned slender white tapers. Tall, single floor tapers stood in the corners of the church before groups of palms and tall foliage plants. The steps leading to the choir stalls were outlined by bouquets of Easter lilies showered with the same lovely flowers. On either side of the choir stood white marble pedestals topped by white Grecian urns filled with Easter lilies. Three-branched candelabra holding white gleaming tapers, the base of each candelabra graced by a cluster of lilies, were arranged inside the choir. Single candles of graduating size, adorned by clusters of lilies, outlined the choir rail leading to the sanctuary. On either side of the sanctuary entrance were two-branched candelabra encircled by mounds of Easter lilies. A brilliant illumination effect produced by outside lights emphasized the rich colors of the stained glass memorial windows on either side of the altar, before which stood white marble columns holding white Grecian urns filled with Easter lilies. A large cluster of Easter lilies was arranged at the base of the cross in the center of the altar. The gold altar vases were filled with lilies and ropes of smilax festooned the front of the altar.

The ushers entered first, preceding down the long center aisle in pairs. They included: L. S. Mitchell, Dr. Frank K. Boland, Dr. Phinizy Calhoun, Frank L. Fleming, Jackson Dick and Hughes Spalding. They were followed by the groomsmen and bridesmaids who also descended the aisle in pairs. The former included Thomas Evans, William Schroder, William A. Rooker, James Whitten, David N. McCullough and Chappelle Mathews, of Athens. The bridesmaids were Misses Emily Mitchell, Charlotte Chapman, Ruth Hunnicutt, Louise MacIntyre, Adele Heimer and Henrie Hudson, of Macon. They wore striking gowns of heliotrope-colored silk moire fashioned with long trains. The close-fitting Bodies were trimmed by a cape collar effect that flared at the back of the neck in Queen Anne style. The narrow girdles were finished by a small rhinestone buckle in the center front. They wore gold cloth sandals and carried bouquets of yellow roses and valley lilies centered by a cluster of lavender tinted orchids.

Miss Eloise Gresham, the bride's younger sister, entered alone, and she was an attractive figure wearing a gown of yellow silk moire fashioned like those worn by the bridesmaids.

Her bouquet was of deep purple orchids tied with orchid-shaded ribbon. Miss Juanita Shockley, of Salisbury, Md., preceded the bride to the altar as junior bridesmaid. Her dress was of white tulle with a train. The bridesmaid featured a brief train. Her hair was styled by a circlet of gold leaves and she wore gold shoes and carried a bouquet like those carried by the bridesmaids of a smaller size.

Beautiful Bride.

The beautiful young bride was accompanied to the altar by her father, Robert Irving Gresham, who gave her in marriage. They were met at the sanctuary by the bridegroom and his best man, I. S. Mitchell III. Alred in his role of groom, the bride made along straight stately lines, the bride presented a figure of striking beauty and regal loveliness. Small white tulle sleeves, the skirt, which moulded the bride's slender figure, extended into a long graceful train. Her bridal gown was of white tulle, the tulle extending beyond her satin train. Her slippers were of ivory satin and she carried a bouquet of delicately tinted orchids, tied with ivory satin ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gresham, the bride's parents, entertained at a reception after the ceremony at the Piedmont Driving Club. The guests including members of the bridal party, out-of-town guests, members of the bride and groom's families and a few close friends. The hosts were assisted in receiving by the bride and groom and the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Radford Mitchell Sr.

Mrs. Gresham wore a handsome gown of black velvet with a shoulder bouquet of orchids. Mrs. Mitchell Sr., was attired in black friendship velvet trimmed in gold-headed bands and her shoulder cluster was formed of deep purple orchids.

The guests were received in the living room where exquisite decorations prevailed. The floral motif featuring Easter lilies, yellow roses, and valley lilies. Guarding the entrance into the living room were white marble pedestals holding Grecian urns filled with Easter lilies. Similar pedestals, topped by urns holding lilies, were arranged on either side of the broad fireplace. Vases and low crystal bowls filled with Easter lilies, yellow roses and lilies of the valley graced the mantel, consoles and tables.

Exquisite Bride's Table. The exquisitely appointed bride's table was set in an adjoining room and covers were laid for 16, including the bride and groom and their attendants. The oval-shaped table was covered with shimmering white satin and over the entire table a trellis effect in wedding knot design was formed of countless sprays of valley lilies and soft lacy maidenhair fern. A star-shaped plateau of yellow roses and valley lilies formed the table's centerpiece, from which arose a tall cut crystal epergne filled with delicately tinted orchids.

Eight low crystal bowls in which were arranged yellow roses, valley lilies and orchids graced the table at intervals, alternating with crystal candlesticks from which hung gleaming cut glass prisms and holding white lighted tapers. Baskets of white spun candy holding valley lilies, small orchids, and yellow roses marked the guests' places. White fluffy tulle bows were tied to the exquisite crystal wine goblets from which toasts were drunk to the bride and groom. The five-tiered bride's cake was arranged on a near-by table, the base of the cake encircled by valley lilies.

Assisting at the reception were Mesdames Hughes Spalding, L. L. Hunnicutt, William Schroder, Jack Bothamley, John C. Jacobs, of Chicago; Morris Shockley, of Salisbury, and John Howie Thomson, of New Orleans. Misses Betty Powers and Eleanor Spalding kept the bride's book.

Wedding Journey. Mr. Mitchell and his bride left in the late evening for a motor trip to New York and other eastern cities. For traveling the bride donned a smart tailored suit fashioned of dark green wool and trimmed with a mink fur collar. Her hat was of dark green felt topped by a pair of mink fur tails and she wore brown accessories. After their return Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will make their home temporarily at the Colonial hotel on Peachtree road.

A part of the colorful decorations the new silver loving cup was displayed, which is to be an award presented in convention at Augusta to the district doing outstanding work this year for student aid.

DOTTED LINE HONEYMOON

By JOSEPH McCORD

INSTALLMENT XXIX.

It was Jacqueline who heard it first—a slight scraping noise, a creak. Before she could tell Larry, a harsh voice came out of the blackness.

"Stick em up, you two!"

Jacqueline was too nearly paralyzed with fear to remember about turning off the light. She remained motionless, clutching the parcel tightly to her breast.

The voice spoke again:

"Get on your feet . . . and keep that light pointed down. I got you covered."

Larry rose without a word and Jacqueline did likewise. She remembered the order and allowed the flashlight to hang limply in her hand, making a pool of light on the floor in which she and Larry stood. Trapped.

"Now then, Miss," directed the voice, "throw that package on the floor . . . over this way. No foolin'!"

"Jack!" Run!"

Before she could comply she was conscious of a lightning-like move by Larry. The torch was knocked from her hand. She heard its shattering crash on the floor and the room was in darkness. She knew instinctively that Larry had hurried himself in the direction of that voice.

There was a red stab of flame. A report that almost stunned her with its intensity.

Too frightened to cry out, she listened. There was the sound of shuffling feet, the writhing of bodies. A vile epithet. Men panting. Then Larry's breathless:

"Well, what can we do? We can't tell the kid the truth—NO—WE'D BE FIRED IN A SECOND IF WE TIPPED HER OFF—" will have to do some first-aid stuff before he gets a report."

Jacqueline's hand came out to find Larry's. She could see it resting on his knee.

"Do you know, . . . Oh, Larry, darling! You're hurt!"

Jacqueline's cry burst out at the touch of Larry's fingers. They were sticky, wet.

"It's nothing," he assured her quickly. "Just a touch in the shoulder. I think it's almost quit bleeding . . . just messy."

"Larry, stop the car! Let me see it!"

"I'd rather not, dear. I'm making out all right. I want you to get home . . . Vince will help me out."

"Stop just a minute," she insisted. "Turn on that little light. I don't care if they do catch up to us. Nothing is going to happen to me."

She was so insistent that he pulled over to the side of the road and stopped. He slipped his coat from his shoulders and she loosened his tie and opened his shirt.

"There's a handkerchief in my breast pocket," he told her. "Fold it into a pad and we'll try to tie it in place with my other handkerchief. His fingers were exploring. "Just below the top of my shoulder, as I thought. Ploughed the muscle. There. Slip the other handkerchief through and tie it . . . like that. Any sort of knot. This isn't the time to do any explaining, if anybody comes along."

"Are you sure you can drive, Larry? I can steer, if you'll do the other things."

"No, indeed. I'm a famous one-arm driver. Let's see it. You've been such a . . . trump. I think you've guessed a good deal about tonight. This will be sketchy. My father spent years in perfecting a manufacturing process . . . rather tedious, but it had to be with textiles. Quite revolutionary. Like most inventors, he was not much of a businessman. Impractical."

"I know," Jacqueline helped. She was thinking of Vince.

"Well, to make a long story short, he took in a partner in a stock company and a factory started to go down east. This partner attended to all the details, but most of the stock was unloaded on Dad's friends. He was well known and well liked. As it always happens, a lot of that stock was held by people who put most of their savings into it."

"I know," Jacqueline said again. This time, she was thinking of Vince's daughter.

"I was out of school when the crash came," Larry went on. "Dad had always been rather lavish with money as far as I was concerned, and I never bothered my head where it came from. I was down in South America. Got the idea that I was going to make a big hit on my own, like a Richard Harding Davis. As a matter of fact, I was such a flop that I didn't keep in very close touch with home."

"Here's what happened, as nearly as I could piece it together, and from what Mother told me after I got back. She didn't live so very long after the old gentleman . . . died."

"You told me that. Are you all right, Larry?"

"I'm making out. The process proved a failure. The company went up. The stockholders . . . some of them thought Dad had fleeced them. They brought suit against him and I guess he couldn't stand that. Sensitive."

"I understand."

"Later, I found out through a friend of my father's in the textile business that another concern was using a process similar to dad's. For some unknown reason, he never had patented it. Somebody else did. I didn't have the money to do any investigating, but I did find out that his former partner was the principal stockholder in the new firm. And that they were making money hand over fist."

"What a shame! It was the same as stealing it!"

"You telling me? I didn't mind the money, but I swore, if I ever had a chance, I'd see to it that my father's name was cleared. If the package we got tonight is what I think it is . . . it's all we need."

"Do you want to tell me what it is?"

"Of course. My father had a precise way of recording all his experiments. He never destroyed any calculations or results . . . put them all in a memorandum book, or books. Written so fine that you could hardly read them. Mother told me that he always kept the practice up and cached them where they were safe from fire. I knew where that was, or thought I did."

"Under the hearth."

"That was a catch there. If anything went wrong, I wanted to be in a position to fight. The other fellow had bought our old place and was camping close by. The fact that our house was empty . . . Well, it gave me a lump. I knew this guy knew of those records. He couldn't find them, but he wasn't going to take a chance of some tenant fixing up the place and stumbling on them. If he were playing such a game, the stakes were so high that he wouldn't stop at anything to win. Guess that sounds rather fantastic. It took me a long time to figure it out."

"I'm surprised you didn't try to get them sooner."

Well, it gave me a lump. I knew this guy knew of those records. He couldn't find them, but he wasn't going to take a chance of some tenant fixing up the place and stumbling on them. If he were playing such a game, the stakes were so high that he wouldn't stop at anything to win. Guess that sounds rather fantastic. It took me a long time to figure it out."

"I'm surprised you didn't try to get them sooner."

Tech Defense Stronger for Duke: Georgia Lacks Back Reserve

Those Dukes of Durham are to arrive in our town about breakfast time, which will account for any seismograph disturbance at that hour.

So fearsome is their reputation for creating havoc that mothers are keeping their children indoors today and tomorrow. Their satanic majesties, the Blue Devils, are creating no end of football blues.

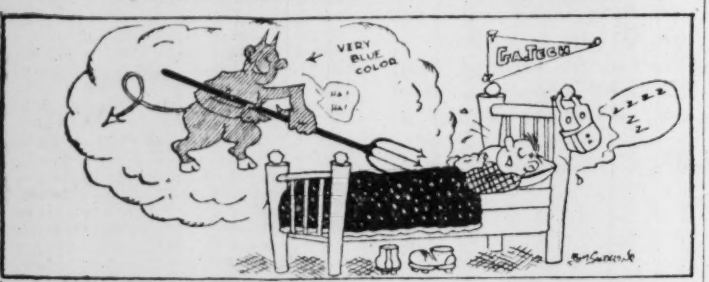

They arrive today and tomorrow afternoon are scheduled to give Georgia Tech's crippled and undermanned crew a headache.

Grant field is regarded by the Dukes much as the Eye-Talians regarded the town of Aduwa where the Ethiopians harpooned a number of Eye-Talian soldiers some years ago. So this year they wanted to get even. It was at Grant field that the 1933 Duke team was harpooned and sent back to Durham instead of the Rose Bowl.

But, the Dukes should recall they had their revenge last season. A good, fat revenge. Tomorrow is just another ball game.

Not only that but it is "Be Kind to One Another Week." I hope and trust the Dukes will do nothing brutal and that brotherly love may be the motto for the day.

Some of the Techs have been having bad dreams in which they are poked in the stummick by a Blue Devil with a spear. It may have been caused by eating deviled ham. Or maybe not. But, at any rate, I hope the Blue Devils will employ no spears. They are against the rules.

Georgia Tech is going to play the game. At a late hour last night it was learned it would not be necessary to leave vacant spots in the Tech line. Some replacements have been found for the injured.

There will be an opportunity to witness what may be Wallace Wade's greatest team in action against a stubborn Tech team; a team which will be in there fighting as long as the human frame can stand up.

Don't miss the game. You may be able to say, along in late December, that you saw the team play which is going to represent the west and the south in the Rose Bowl.

WALLACE WADE.

Wallace Wade is one of the great coaches in the game. He began as a prep school coach in middle Tennessee and from there became an assistant at Vanderbilt. From there he went to Alabama and produced great football teams, three of which played in the Rose Bowl, winning twice and tying once.

He went to Duke when that institution looked around for a coach who would organize athletics and put them on a sound and sane basis.

In his five years there Wade has shown substantial improvement in his teams with each year of coaching. He is a fundamentalist in football. He teaches blocking and following the ball and tackling and the essentials, before he goes into anything else.

He has a grim determination to succeed. And he was the first to bring to the Carolinas the type football which was to give that section recognition on a par with that enjoyed by other sections of the south.

WINNING A PLACE AT BROWN.

Wallace Wade was an All-American guard at Brown. There is an old story about his winning a place on the team. He was small for a guard. And he was overlooked

CARMACK SEEN AS NEW STARTER AT RIGHT GUARD

Jacket Line To Offer Strong Front Despite Loss of Key Men.

By Jack Troy.

Georgia Tech's Engineers may not be able to back their way through the football jungles guarded by the Blue Devils of Duke this Saturday at Grant field.

But, on the other hand, they are showing a definite possibility of keeping those Dukes down a bit in the matter of ground-gaining. The ends are definitely improved. They are keeping those hands up and fighting off interferences. And they are going on back into the secondary and busting up some plays.

All this has taken place against the freshmen and Gray Devils, however, and it is a well-known fact that such opposition can not possibly compare with the real thing, such as Duke will offer.

SOPH DYNAMITE.

There is a fair possibility that Carmack, whom Jack Tharpe terms as 148 pounds of sophomore dynamite, may start at right guard in place of the injured John Wilcox.

Carmack has been sliding here and there in the scrimmages and harassing the Gray Devils and freshmen no little. While it might appear logical that too much sliding with plays would make Carmack susceptible to splinter plays that came back over his position, the chunky little guard has shown a keen knack for being in the right place at the right time.

Jack Nixon is another sophomore guard who is showing well in the scrimmages. There is a chance that he may get the call at right guard. Both he and Carmack looked good in the Kentucky game.

Fulton Brittain, who has had experience at both guard and tackle, will be held out of the game at the start and sent in at whatever position he is needed most. Having a utility player like Brittain will help the Tech cause greatly, with Wilcox and Captain Bob Eubanks out of the game with injuries.

The Tech varsity players were worked in a dummy scrimmage with the freshmen yesterday. The freshmen ran Duke plays in slow motion and positional play of varsity ends, tackles and so on was studied and corrected.

Prior to that there was a long passing drill and a bit later a drill on going down under punts. Ocker Sims, Dutch Konemann and Lawrence Hays were kicking well.

Scrappy Edwards is pretty sure to start his first game on Saturday. Lawrence Hays will be held out. The backfield combination will include Sims, quarterback; Konemann and Edwards, halfbacks, and Harry Appleby, fullback.

Edwards will play safety man on the defense, a course of improvement.

The Jackets are showing definite improvement in several phases—conditioning, end play and pass defense.

The scrimmage yesterday was devoted to sharpening the reserves, especially the line. The line, including Konemann and Tom Allen were worked at the ends, with Red Roberts and Sam Rooney at tackles, Carmack and Nixon at guards and R. E. Hood at center.

Dutch Konemann this week has been taking plenty of lumps. He has been running at every opponent. Even when the linemen were taking lumps, Konemann was to be found running with them. The Flying Dutchman intends to be in reserve to play 60 minutes Saturday. He probably won't be used that long, but he will be able to do it if necessary.

Devils Entrain For Grant Field.

DURHAM, N. C., Oct. 17.—(AP)—After running through a light workout here this afternoon, 27 of Duke University's undefeated and untied Blue Devils entrained here tonight for Atlanta, Ga., where on Saturday they meet the Yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech.

With the exception of Captain Jim Johnston, guard, and Joe Cardwell, tackle, the squad was in good shape for Saturday's game. Johnston and Cardwell have minor hurts but will probably be able to play.

The following players were in the squad leaving here tonight: Ed West, Dick Tallaferro, Carl Hartness, Frank Liana, ends; Joe Cardwell, Woody Lipscomb, Jim Hollis, Joe Brunanski, tackles; Willis Edgerton, Clarence Badgett, Captain Johnston, Tom Power, guards; Jack Hennefer, Fred Edwards, Ike Eakins, centers; Ace Parker, Elberton Monroe, Dick McAninch, quarterbacks; Julie Ward, Herb Hudkins, McCanley Clark, Sam McCaskill, Sam Gardner, halfbacks; Jack Alexander and Harwood Smith, fullbacks.

Zack Cravey Warns Georgia Hunters

Zack D. Cravey, state commissioner of game and fish, Thursday warned that unless hunters are "thoughtful" there may be a serious decrease in Georgia's marsh hen stock. "Over 250,000 marsh hens have been killed on the Georgia coast this season to date," Cravey said, "and another good marsh tide is expected in November."

The season closes November 20. The daily bag limit is 25. Unless hunting slows up, it may become necessary to ask the legislature to reduce the daily limit to protect the game, Cravey indicated.

Dick Daviscourt Will Meet Roche

Dick Daviscourt will meet Dore Roche at the auditorium Tuesday night in the main event of the Henry Weber wrestling card. Jim Londo promised Roche a match but the Greek begins a South American tour instead. So Daviscourt will be the man and Roche was eager to meet him. In the semi-windup, Rudy Strongberg, the big German, meets Joe Cox. It should be a match that will have the crowd on its toes.

In the opening match, Bob Wagner, the big boy from Dallas, meets Dick Lever, of New York. It is a card of six good heavyweights, headed by Dick Daviscourt and Roche, and a great crowd is expected. Tickets are on sale at the Piedmont Hatters.

MARIST, C. H. S. MEET TONIGHT AT BALL PARK

Decatur Plays R. E. Lee; Purples, G. M. A. on Foreign Soil.

By Roy White.

Two important games in determining the North Georgia Interscholastic conference championship will be played tonight in the feature prep games of the week.

Commercial and Marist, co-holders with Decatur for the N. G. I. C. title last year play at 8 o'clock at Ponce de Leon park, while Decatur meets R. E. Lee, of Thomaston, at the same hour on the Decatur field.

Boys' High and G. M. A., two other members of the city's prep circles, play important games in the state championship race. The Purples leave early today for Savannah to meet the Savannah Blue Jackets Saturday afternoon, while G. M. A. goes to Augusta tonight to play Richmond Academy Saturday afternoon.

MONROE VS. GORDON. Two other games of particular state interest will be played this afternoon and tonight at Barnesville and Macon.

Red Barron's Monroe Aggies renew their warfare with Dickie Butler's Gordon Institute this afternoon at Barnesville, and Riverside's undefeated eleven plays Lanier High tonight in Centennial stadium.

The Marist-Commercial game should be one of the best of the year here, in that both teams are battling their way towards the N. G. I. C. championship. Both teams won over Tech High and both lost to Boys' High.

EVEN GAME. Commercial lost 22 to 0 to Boys' High and beat Tech High 12 to 6, while Marist lost 34 to 6, to Boys' High, and beat Tech High 2 to 0.

And taking into consideration when the game was played, there is little to choose between them tonight. And it appears that the breaks, if any, will be a deciding factor in the game.

Decatur, showing an improvement with each game, is a slight favorite to beat the Thomaston team, and keep its N. G. I. C. slate clean. Commercial will most likely line up with J. Jones and Ray C. Gies, ends; McWilliams and Paschall, tackles; Ludwig and G. Jones, guards; Bailey, center, and Red Loyd, Reynolds, Sellers and Corley in the backfield.

Marist will line up with O'Kelley and McBee, ends; Reid and George, tackles; Simonton and Knight, guards; Jones, center, and Epperson, Slater, Hitt and Thomason in the backfield.

Gordon Institute Faces Monroe Aggies.

BARNESVILLE, Ga., Oct. 17.—Gordon Institute's undefeated football team meets Red Barron's Monroe Aggies here tomorrow afternoon in one of the feature games on the home schedule.

Four former Atlanta prep stars are members of the Gordon team. They are Dick Jones and Red Cumble, with Boys' High's championship team last year, and Billy Pelot and Tommy Gantt, from Decatur High last year. Jones is an outstanding center, and with Cumble leading the Purples at quarterback. Both Pelot and Gantt were halfbacks on the Decatur team.

Lanier Eleven Meets Riverside.

GAINEVILLE, Ga., Oct. 17.—One of the most colorful prep football teams ever to represent Riverside Military Academy will leave early Friday morning for Macon, Ga., where the Gainesville Cadets play the Lanier High Eleven Saturday night.

There are 32 players on the squad, from 15 different states, and starting with only two letters from last year Coach Red Sanders has developed a winning combination. Friday's lineup will consist of Little and Dobbs, ends; Rainey and Komisar, tackles; Flowers and Lightfoot, guards; Harris, center, and Driver, Armstrong, Brantley and Van Thompson in the backfield.

Sophomores Win Piedmont Meet

DEMOREST, Ga., Oct. 17.—The Piedmont College sophomores won the annual college track and field meet here by capturing all the dash and relay events.

Voigt and Black completely carried off the dashes and relays for the sophomores, while Hogsted for the girls was the principal figure in all the girls' events. Turner, of the freshmen, and Neal, of the sophomores, tied for high jump with Owens taking third place.

You've Met Lots of Clowns-- Meet the King of Clowns!

By Ralph McGill.

"You've met a lot of clowns—meet the King of Clowns."

That was my introduction last night to Felix Adler, production clown with the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus.

For 26 years he has been making people laugh.

Before he began clowning for a livelihood he was an end with the Iowa State football team. He recalled being chased out of Baton Rouge more than a quarter of a century ago. He and his team made the mistake of winning. So they were chased out town with a barrage of old eggs and rocks. They preferred the rocks.

"How did a football player come to be a clown," said your reporter hastily, "not that there aren't clowns on the football field as well as in newspaper offices, attorneys' offices and the like."

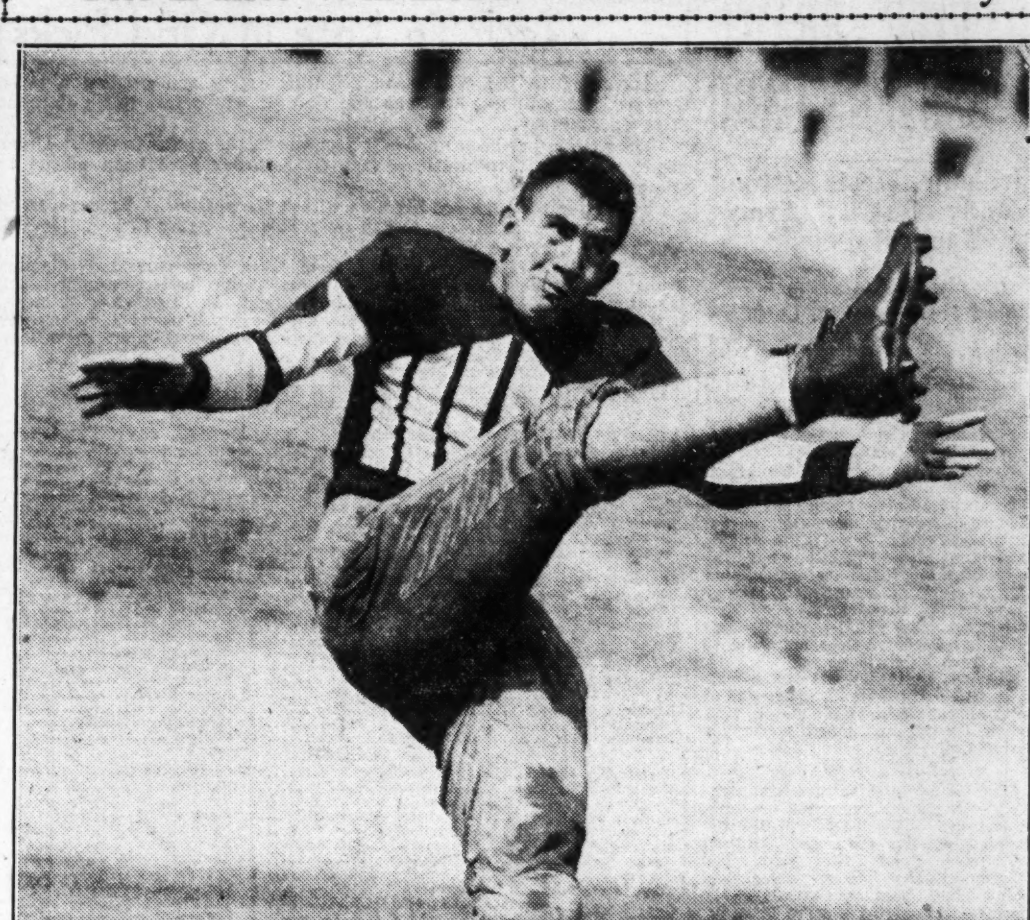

"Well," he said, "I had a pretty good voice. I used to sing for the illustrated song slides in movies. And then I went to work with a vaudeville act. I was so clumsy I was funny so I went to Ringling and got a job. I've been clowning ever since."

"Do you think you could play end for a while?" I asked. "Coach out at Georgia Tech needs help so badly he'd try a circus clown."

"I guess I'd better stick to the show," he said. "I'd break in two."

WRONG IMPRESSION. As an old circus man myself, it made your reporter's heart homesick to see the lot and the tents and the performers. The show "Laugh Clown,"

HAGEN LEADS PRO QUALIFIERS

By Whitney Martin.

TWIN HILLS, OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 17.—Walter Hagen, the man who was "too old" for championship play; whose tottering legs and expanding waist line robbed him of his chance to compete with youth, in all appearances was medalist tonight for the eighteenth annual P. G. A. tournament.

"The Hag" outwitted the tricky Twin Hills course this morning to turn in a sparkling 67, three under par, and a competitive course record he came back this afternoon with a 72 for a 139 total, three strokes ahead of the field.

Darkness, urged by low-hanging clouds, closed in on the course before several entrants had completed their second 18-hole rounds, long before darkness hid the rolling, tree-studded countryside, however, those who failed to complete the 36 holes had only the vaguest chance of overtaking the amazing Hag.

Three strokes behind Hagen were Alvin Kreuger, a tall, flaming haired youngster from Beloit, Wis., and Herman Barron, of White Plains, N. Y.

Horton Smith, the lanky Oak Park Ryder cup team member, whose game today was a mixture of chills and fever, was bracketed by himself at 148, with John Revolta, of Milwaukee, and Harry Cooper, of Glen Ellyn, Ill., in the 144 class.

The remainder of the field was drawn out behind as the heavy Bermuda grass fairways, yawning sand traps and woodland settings took their toll.

Gene Sarazen, the ranking favorite who "need a title" and who arrived a week early to study the course, staggered in with a 72-76. Lou Diegel, of Philmont, Pa., wound up with a huge 157. Craig Wood, the Deal, N. J., sharpshooter, took 80 strokes on the morning round and was one of those whose afternoon play was cut short by dusk.

ELBERTON PLAYS MONROE ELEVEN

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Tenth district football teams, with the exception of Madison High, continue their conquest for championship recognition tomorrow on scattered grids. Madison has an open date.

Athens and Hartwell, generally conceded the strongest teams in the district, face a foe which should be subdued, but neither has what can be termed a "set-up."

The Maroons of Athens, undefeated in three games, will encounter Washington High school. Athens and Elberton will clash in another intra-conference game that holds much interest. The Granite City team lost its first game of the year to Athens. Elberton is coached by Robert E. Lee, former Mercer star.

PETRELS SEEK FIRST VICTORY

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 17.—Seeking its first win of the season after dropping two straight, Oglethorpe's football team will battle Scrapy Moore's Chattanooga Moccasins Friday night at Chattanooga.

Two full teams and an extra player together with Coach Patrick, manager Wallace and Trainer Rowell, made the trip to Chattanooga. Cecil Moon, halfback, was left behind because of being ineligible.

Those players on the trip are: Puryear, Wade, Farmer, Carson, Leslie, Clyburn, Sullivan, Brown, Faulkner, Freeman, McGready, McNamara, Thompson, Byars, Owens, McGahee, Adams, Neal, Horton, Walters, Piggie, McCullough and Copeland.

Oglethorpe lost to College of Oazarks in the opening game and last Saturday afternoon dropped a 7-to-6 decision to Stetson, at Hernando State.

The team has shown an improvement in practice this week and Coach Patrick was very much pleased when the squad left Atlanta late Thursday afternoon.

YOUNG GROOMED FOR LEFT HALF AGAINST STATE

Roddenberry Also Runs at Halfback Post in Last Scrimmage.

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 17.—Coach Mehre, of the up-and-coming University of Georgia Bulldogs, this afternoon polished his offense for the siege of Raleigh.

The best of the Bulldogs were the participants in a long scrimmage against freshmen gridsters. Lew Young and Roddenberry, ordinarily considered quarterbacks, were running at left half. Roddenberry will no doubt see much action at this important post of the Bulldog team against North Carolina State. Young will also probably play at left half, as well as at quarter.

Dr. H. I. Reynolds, university physician, said tonight that he did not see how Paul Causey, ailing left half, could even make the trip to Raleigh. Bob Law, reserve center, may also remain in Athens, he said.

BOND ONLY REGULAR.

Alf Anderson, out since the Mercer game with a broken hand, will not play Saturday, so John "Doodlebug" Bond, himself out of rough work all week, is the only regular left half.

Coach Mehre will have available. Both Young and Roddenberry were running with exceptional ability at the post this afternoon. Young was carrying the ball on almost every other play during the 30 or more minutes he was in the scrimmage. Roddenberry has game experience as a left half and has proved his ability as a runner, passer and punter.

With Law out at center, Mehre will have to use the dependable John McKnight most of the time. Tom Miller or Brick Stone, both sophomores, must take the pivot post when McKnight is worn.

MAY TAKE TO AIR. Decatur's Mark Richards may go along as a center. It seemed this afternoon that Georgia may take to the air against the Wolfpack Saturday. It looked that way yesterday afternoon. The aerial attack was in for much attention both ways.

Besides Roddenberry and Young, Glenn Johnson and Minto, right halfbacks, as well as Hartman and Jones, were getting off on nice rains. Johnson was particularly effective against the Bullpups.

The Bulldogs, 33 strong, will leave Athens at 10:10 Friday night. They will arrive in Raleigh early Saturday morning. They will board an early night train back to the campus Saturday, arriving early Sunday morning. There were indications that a fairly large party will invade North Carolina with the team.

Wolfpack Holds Gruelling Scrimmage.

slacking in demand for high-priced investments and periodic profit-taking in secondary obligations have the bond market an irregular price trend today.

United States government issues, barely steady during the forenoon, were subjected to renewed pressure during the late dealings and with one exception were 1/32 to 7/32s lower at the close. Domestic corporate bonds drifted aimlessly about without the aid of definite leadership. The mixed up in a variety of both advances and losses.

Transfers of $11,486,000 par value, were nearly $1,000,000 under Wednesday's turnover, and of this amount sales of government bonds accounted for $2,100,000. The Associated Press averages were a point higher to 1/2 of a point lower.

A certain amount of adjustment in portfolios of large investment houses to have been a factor in the irregular

a whole.

The boys' hopes returned when they misinterpreted Tarzan's remarks to mean that soon they would see Tarzan. "New" Bulls translated, "chief" he wanted clothes for presents. The boys started to protest, but Bulls advised: "If you no give, chief him take!"

In place of their garments the chief offered a handful of rags. "I'm going to take the things out of my pockets," said Doc. "They'll probably swipe everything, but we must try to save our knives." The first thing that came out of his pocket was a fountain pen.

Galla Galla reached out his hand for it. "Tell him it's a bottle with a nice drink in it," Doc snapped. "Here, I'll show him. Looky, old 'baby.' Doc removed the cap. "Tell him to put this end in his mouth and pull the lever." Galla Galla did as directed.

A peculiar expression overpowered his evil face and then he began to spit, to the astonishment of himself and his warriors, for Galla Galla was undeniably spitting blood. Suddenly the cannibal leaped up like a madman and stretched out his hands as if to strangle Doc!

POTATO CONTROL IS MAPPED BY AAA

U. S. Will Hike Prices by Subsidizing Diversion to Stock Food.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—A double-barreled program, intended to increase the price of the .935 potato crop, was announced today by the AAA. Included in the plan was a proposal for converting surplus potatoes into livestock feed, flour, starch or alcohol, aided by a government subsidy. Another section projected a marketing agreement to cover Colorado, Idaho, Nebraska and Wyoming. Coincidentally the farm administration scheduled a series of public hearings throughout the western states. The diversion plan would work as follows: The AAA would make payments to growers for diverting potatoes, the payments to equal 25 cents for each 100 pounds of potatoes turned from the usual market channels. At the outset, payments would be limited to 10 per cent of this year's crop, but this proportion might be increased later. Payments would be made on potatoes which met or exceeded the specification for United States commercial or United States No. 2. Payments would not be made on culls or other low-grade potatoes. The proposed marketing agreement would provide for control of interstate shipments from states involved.
